Thread: 1nOnly selling a carding method \(indirectly\)

Essentially the method infringes HF rules in theory as you accept fraudulent money.

The method is basically to accept gofundme on paxful at 7x which is 100% carded. You don't have to be an idiot to not know this. I was almost arrested for this shit along with another member on HF and don't want anybody else to get in trouble.

Also, you provide GFM your SSN + bank details to deposit the money so you have to be an idiot to even buy this method.

Oh and next time, don't threaten to take action against me when you're selling an indirect carding method lmfao.

Yeah, these kinds of people aren't welcome here -- good spot Vendetta.

HOLY HECK this scares me good tutorial vendetta will not buy his methods now

GunLord - November 23, 2016, 6:40 pm

THAT'S NOT EVEN MY METHOD SMH

so what happens if u buy a fullz including SSN, open a fake bank account in another persons name and then card a few cards into that other persons name, then withdraw to the bank account you created under their name - and say, use that to exchange into bitcoin using LBC transfers, profit??

Seriously. People are spoon fed a very decent method (albeit highly blackhat) and still have no creativity what so ever when it comes to said activity.

I really dislike how the OP misled people into believing it wasn't a blackhat guide though.

Thanks for telling us this Vendetta. You almost got arrested for doing something similar?

I really dislike how the OP misled people into believing it wasn't a blackhat guide though. This was a blackhat guide and is literally accepting carding payments which I stated. You literally gave people the blackhat solution to the method. I don't condone BH activity, although I know most of the methods/techniques used. Reading my post made it extremely obvious that the method was blackhat in nature, hell it even says carding.

He is right. I got a voucher of this method and I told the kid he should stop selling it.

Interesting my post on that kids thread got removed lol.

Anyways thanks V for the heads up, remember people this is not the only kid/thread that lies:

In his thread:

Quote:What this method does not need/have:

Gambling
Working
Stealing
Carding

When your underage I guess you can get away with it while screwing over people here. Get a real job kid, being a thief doesn't get you far.
