Thread: Got no reply from contact form

Legree - November 23, 2016, 3:27 pm

So to make a long story short my old account on here was uid=790184

It is closed and repkilled, I have tried contacting staff multiple times and have received no answer as to why. I think it was defiantly compromised when I went to back to school back in 2013. I would like to know if I can participate on these forums still either from my old account or this one, or at all even?. No point in sticking around if I have no solid confirmation that I won't randomly be considered a ban evader or multi.

Thanks

If your account was closed I'm pretty sure it cannot be reopened.

I love the replies, but I really do want a serious answer to my question.

They aren't staff or admins so there input is just as meaningless as yours. If a staff member or admin would respond that would be great. Thank you Wait, your time will come. And when it does, it will be the best day of your life!

Unless your account was closed for inactivity you are not welcome to come back.

That's interesting but not relevant to my case at all. I've already stated that I believe my account was compromised before it was closed. I have tried emailing through the contact form and that was useless. I posted this over 2 days ago and have yet to receive a response from anyone with any actual authority.

If your account was closed for a reason other than inactivity, you aren't welcome to come back. The compromise doesn't matter.

If it was closed and RKO'd, especially since you didn't secure your own account, then it most likely is perma closed.

That's what it looks like. I see that Omni has been replying to other threads in this sub forum hopefully he can answer my question.

So, can I assume I am allowed at this point since it's been almost 6 days since I created this thread/or?

Most likely your old account was closed because you haven't been on since 2013 so omni probably closed it thinking you weren't coming back. But seeing that that your trustscan doesn't have a matching ip, you should be good to keep going with this account. Its funny though your just asking this, since you have had this account for almost a year.

Thread is over a month old, any reply from a admin or staff member would do just fine. I don't want any problems down the road if I decide to deal with the marketplace.
