fannas1 - November 24, 2016, 11:14 pm

What an odd amount. WOW OP very nice giveaway. This is my entry. Feeling lucky today.

You are feeling sleepy, close your eyes as I count backwards from five to one. Five, you close your eyes and you feel peaceful. Four, breathing slowing down as you fall deeper into a sleep. Three, all you see now is all your fond childhood memories replaying like a movie in your mind. Two, it feels like you are outside of your body and you are watching yourself sleeping. One, sleep. When you wake up, and see an owl, you will know fannas1 must win this competition.

Counting back from three to one, you will wake up and you will not remember this experience, other than the owl. Three, slowly moving back into your own body. Two, you can hear sounds as you start to wake up. One, you're awake.
