Looks great! Especially since you provided the source code!

EDIT: Virus analysis below.

Spoiler (Click to View)

=====Virus analysis=====

So, this is just a quick virus analysis. ALL INFORMATIONS BELOW ARE VALID AS OF 26.11.2016! THE VERSION OF COMET RAT RIGHT NOW IS 0.1.4.0
Runs fine in sandboxie.

Does NOT contact any domains while running nor modify registry.

The source code is publicly available.

For me it looks SAFE

LastSession - November 25, 2016, 1:59 pm

Could you reupload the source code?

Awesome contribution.

DDoS functions are not allowed on HF, I suggest you remove that feature before you get closed

We recommend you take the time to read the HF Help Documents section. The answer to your questions should be contained in there.

This was unnecessary. This not a DDoSing service, this is just a little piece of software with DDoSing capabilities, which is nothing new around here in the RAT section, wtf... I've seen DDoSing plugins for NanoCore around here and whatnot.

I really don't think OP is getting a warning for that shit, or even getting closed. Don't expect that to happen, so reported for nothing in my opinion.

Just wondering why you make a rat, that seems to be very well made, but limit the ports to 9999?
When there are 65535 ports.

Why even limit it though? I've heard before that some routers don't allow ports under 40,000 to be forwarded.

well i never heard that and it was a private rat and i always use 4 digits ports so that's not a problem for me

you can fix that with small changes in the source code

When i sent the stub (crypted) to another computer it didn't proceed to execute the EXE file as it did on my computer when i tested it out.

Its because it has a maximum value of 9999
Don't use a port number over it and you'll be fine.

On password recovery it gives an error on client computer for me, anyone else is facing this issue?

SpaceCadet - November 7, 2017, 6:10 pm

Does anybody know how to run a website on client's pc as hidden?

zetaBoy - November 8, 2017, 5:13 am

does it has a DNSmessenger

howard674 - November 8, 2017, 5:21 am

I test it, is a good RAT.

TrapKing - November 8, 2017, 11:17 am i use this one, best one i find yet !! very nice

Scr1pt_K1dd1e - November 8, 2017, 3:14 pm

thanks man hopes this works well

Pootje - November 9, 2017, 11:30 am

Work but its sooooo slowly

lahuolou - November 13, 2017, 10:56 pm

I feel this is a very good tool, I really hope he is multilingual.

anyone tell me how i can builder good serveur in this rat ?

R4NS0M - November 14, 2017, 9:11 am

seems bit old btw nice job

SH?D? - November 15, 2017, 10:47 am

I wish it has hidden rdp feature

JOHNLUKE - November 15, 2017, 10:56 am

Thanks for this one! I will test this asap and leave some Feedback

MrAwesomeZz - November 16, 2017, 5:12 pm

I for some reason can't get the client to connect via my IP and the portfowarded port. Makes this useless in my case but still cool

OGMadcow - November 17, 2017, 11:16 pm

It is telling me that teeplow is the wrong password.

Martinjolo - November 18, 2017, 1:41 pm

Looks like a great rat never seen it before.
