Hey all,

Selling giftcards, since I SE them, you will pay once its confirmed that its shipped to you. Got cards up to $21 usually you either get $10-15 though. Willing to give a vouch copy if necessary.

You don't need to ship them out if you use the starbucks app.

Also I'm not sure if this is allowed.

I'll take the vouch copy and give an honest review?

Lol this is so easy to do. I think what he's doing is contacting support, saying that a worker spilled coffee or something, and shipping out the gift card to your address.
