You know, at first I was led to believe I wouldn't like the show at all. But then I watched about 3 episodes and got totally hooked on it.

Now I sit here questioning... why did I do this to myself?

I saw it only had 12 episodes yet chose to watch anyways. But now I am just left here wondering..

What kind of fucking ending that was because, what the fuck?

Is there going to be a Season 2? I just googled and saw someone say something about the company that created it going bankrupt or something but idunno.

Either way, I now sit here angry and unsatisfied.

The show was awesome, and then at the end, it just shat itself for no reason. And yeah, the studio Manglobe filled for bankruptcy and closed down, so don't expect a S2 anytime soon (at least, not by them).
