Now that christmas is getting close and we're all getting in the christmas spirits. Here's some great christmas classics in the style of soul, jazz, blues & funk, might even throw some R&B in here.

As much as I love the holiday music, I have to listen to it all day at work. You can only listen to Jingle Bells for so long before you want to frontflip off a bridge.

Do you work at big mall or market or something? lol I can see a reason for that then if its being played all day.
