Thread: AA Weekly - Recruitment #2

DerMensch24 - November 27, 2016, 7:21 pm

Hello again AA! As you are all aware, I posted Issue #89 a few days ago to continue Anime Adventures Weekly!

As some of you pointed out in the said thread above, to get this to be a full-time, up and running project again I am posting this for anyone who is interested in helping to start a new team of dedicated writers to help post new issues for AAW. Referring to an older thread by Tweety, I will try to use some of the positions he proposed while also adding some new ones:

Headlines - Your role will be to catch the readers eye using the native weeb language of HF

AA News (Writers 1 & 2) - These individual(s) will be responsible for the research & collection of anime news and stories for each issue. They should also recommend 2-3 anime for readers for each issue

AA Forum Collaborator - Your role will involve searching through AA to recall old threads/members/ideas that should be brought up, reorganized/reused, or for the sake of nostalgia. You may also have a small section to post information regarding important threads/announcements within AA itself. Note - grave-digging is frowned upon unless justified

Manga (& VN) Highlights (Writers 1 & 2) - These individual(s) will be responsible for researching & collecting information regarding manga & visual novels (vn) news for each issue. They should also recommend 2-3 manga/vn for readers for each issue

Gaming - Your role will be to gather information on gaming (preferably in regards to Japanese releases)

Music Director - Your role will be to gather information in the Japanese music industry as well as provide 2-3 music videos for each issue

Waifu of the Week - "Your waifu is shit ;)" (Your role is pretty self explanatory)

Culture Guru - Your role will be a short section where you will describe an intriguing fun fact each week regarding Japanese culture

Interviews - Your role will be to interview fellow members (or actual anime/manga industry peeps if possible!) on topics of your choice

Opinionator - This role may or may not happen, however your role would be to write an opinion piece regarding an anime/manga, news story that is relevant, and so forth to introduce a new insight for the readers.

Proof Reader - Last but not least is the key role of proof reading each issue to make sure it is fancy enough and covered with the right amount of fairy dust!

If you wish to add/recommend a new section for AA Weekly please post your response below with your ideas!

For now I will take the role as one of the AA news writers this may change in the future however.

Please PM me or post below if you are interested. I also would highly recommend that you try to connect and use the AA Discord chat already if you have not done so in order to keep in contact and organize. Here is the invite if you have not joined: <https://#/0cXNUILKqwetvlj4> (or look for the link to the discord thread by Tasemu in Issue #89).

I hope that you may all consider participating to help with the project!
