I am l33t but I want to purchase a group. Is there anyway I could purchase a group?

Prophett - November 28, 2016, 3:54 pm

PM Omniscient to be approved.

grail - November 28, 2016, 3:55 pm

Once the overlord Omniscient gives you permission.

With your level of quality, I highly doubt it.

May the gods be with you on this decision, however, it is up to the greatness of our Administrator. You should PM Omni about this.

You must send Omni a private message asking if he approves of you owning a group, then you just need to buy one.

Are you trying to imply that I am low quality? I don't appreciate the harassment.

Doesn't matter if you are uber or not. Just matters if Omniscient allows you

There are literally 5 people telling you the exact same thing. Like, why do people post on these threads if they have already been answered ???

Because you don't see the replies that are posted while you're drafting your own post. All of those posts were made with 90 seconds of each other.

You'll need to send Omniscient a private message inquiring whether or not you may own a group.
