Just message any staff member and they will take care of it. If they run a risk to the community through scams or infecting others, please make a community alert.

You can't go wrong with PMing Omniscient. Just make sure you have sufficient proof and don't waste his time. ?

You handing yourself in then?

Prince™ - November 29, 2016, 5:27 pm

Yup Omni or any other staff member with valid reason of why you suspect them to be multi. This helps them speed up the decision making process.

Message KoH first. If he cannot do anything, then direct message Omniscient.
