It's a method designed to grow your channel, you will get viewers there is no doubt about it. The volume of viewers is really up to you, your videos & ability to utilise this method but, maintaining the viewers is simply up to you.

That is correct it may be low price but you are getting more than what you pay for. I want everyone to be more than satisfied and think to themselves "Those were the best $3 spent". CPA is not my type of method. Too cliché and boring. I want everyone know I provide quality. Thank you for informing everyone what I provide.?
