Thread: Scammed for \$100 by Seller99 - UID=1079277

Xaros - November 29, 2016, 6:58 pm

NOTICE: User has namechanged to Seller99

Originally messaged me in regards to a currency exchange.

I had agreed to go first, since it was PayPal, and there are ways to chargeback, and such.

Sent the money, was dicked around, and told to wait until they're home.

It's been faaar past that, with no response, has also opened my PMs in regards to the trade.

I will GLADLY delete this thread and apologize if funds are returned/the BTC is sent. Until then, it's up to warn any other users.

Be VERY careful of dealing with this user.

Looks legitimate.

Thanks for the heads-up. I hope you can get this resolved.

This guy just tried to scam me.

I have proofs he tried to scam me selling AGC also.

Gonna make a scam report against him tomorrow!

I highly doubt it'll be resolved.

They're not even responding to messages at this point.

All I can do is open a dispute and hope PayPal helps me out.

Account got closed as well. Good luck on the chargeback. Hopefully you sent is as goods instead of friends. Made that mistake too.

Shit i forgot to put a DWC in his rep but he had like 800 rep so i kind of hesitated at that time

I knew he was a scammer because of this thread

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5428302>

I wanted to buy his knife and i offered to pay in keys (both of us would have been safe) or middle man, he refused both!

Also i asked him about the float value and it matched with an item that was listen on opskins, how strange... haha

Sorry you got scammed man. Cant trust someone just because he is a high rep ub3r, some people just trying to make a quick buck and leave

It was more of, I was in a rush, and did it in good faith.

I don't give a single shit about rep, I know how people just random rep in hopes of getting some back.

I hate that shit, all of my reps are generally from transactions, lol.
