Okay.

Also, it usually helps if you tell people why you need the money, not just "gibe free monies pl0x xDDD" If it's for a valid reason then people are more likely to give. We don't wanna see the money get put towards gambling or anything.

Well whatever, see you in three days for not being in marketplace. Also, don't use PayPal, you're begging to be fucked over. Use Bitcoin.

Piggy Bank - December 1, 2016, 6:53 pm

I suggest doing research in the monetize section in hackforums and research marketing and you can earn some nice money.

oscast - December 1, 2016, 6:57 pm

I quite like how you need money but have a rep with "thanks for purchase"
