Thread: Eclipse - Member of the Year - Nominations

Views - December 2, 2016, 12:46 pm

Welcome to the Eclipse Member of the Year Nomination thread for 2016!

One special member in 2016 will win our Member Of The Year contest and with it a Official Hack Forums award:

Based on their contributions throughout the community and winning the majority vote in the poll. Every member has the potential to win the award, but the decision is made by the combined efforts of the community and Eclipse members.

The Nomination phase begins today and ends on Tuesday, December 12th, 2016!

This is your chance to determine who gets placed on the poll. You may only nominate one person, so make your nomination count! To nominate a member, all you have to do is follow the guidelines in this thread and post your nomination as a response.

Any member that fits the following requirements is eligible to be nominated:

Minimum of 500 posts

0% warning status

Has not received the MOTM award previously

Non-staff member (you can still nominate mentors and ex-staff)

Has contributed in some public way throughout the year of 2016 (group forums do not count)

Must have at least 10 examples.

Is not in the Eclipse Usergroup

No valid scam reports.

A nomination post must contain the linked username of the member being nominated, followed by a minimum of ten of their contributions that occurred within the year, and a reason why they deserve the award.

NOTE: Contribution links don't have to necessarily be threads, but can also be links to specific posts.

Use the following format to correctly nominate a member:

Code [b][color=#a160c3]Username:[/color][b] [url=HFProfileLinkHere]TheirUsername[/url]
[b][color=#a160c3]Contributions:[/color][b]

All rules apply during this phase (e.g. securing/asking for votes during this phase will get you banned from all of our future events if brought to the light at any time, even if you're already on the poll).

Username: Novica

Contributions:He made several of Hackforums official avatar galleries.

Occasionally, he helps out the webmaster Omni with GFX.

He is a mentor for HackForums.

He made a wallpaper, avatar, signature, and userbar gallery for everyone to use.

He does ALL graphics for HackForums News, for free.

He's friendly. \(post\)

He's helpful. \(post\)

He wrote a Skype tutorial \(unfortunately all images are gone due to the image host\)

He made \(requests\) cartoonish avatars for free. (click to see thread)

He makes awesome fan art

Reason: He is passionate for graphics design, looking at Omni, Minimalist, xadamxk, my own, and many others avatars, you can see that he is good at is as well. Novica have made so much for this forum that we users are not aware of, I happen to know a few things but that is only because I chat with him sometimes. Let's have a look at Hackforum's official avatar gallery, some entire galleries are made by Novica himself. Then not only that, Omni is a webmaster and not a gfx master, so occasionally he asks help from Novica and he gladly helps him out.

Not only that, just like any admin, staff or mentor, he does a lot of work as a mentor that we users does not really notice. So, considering how much he does for this forum, seen and unseen, that is why I nominates him for the award. He does work for Omni, us, and HackForums in general, I never see him ask for things in return, so it is time.

Wow, an account that's a little over a year old, and you're already giving out an award. Congrats to you, Views.

Most of these people do not receive any praise or recognition for their work, so this will be a cool way to award them. Hopefully it encourages other members to contribute more. Good luck to everyone.

Remember, award or not, you're all still winners. ;)

People probably not thinking they have enough contributions is my guess..

I just feel like this is in the wrong section. Maybe if it was in a different section there would be more activity.

Reason: I'll be truthful - I feel a bit odd nominating myself, and I truly do not want to feel self-important at all by doing so. The only reason I am doing so is because new custom awards do not come very often, so I thought I'd give it a shot. Thus, I apologize in advance for nominating myself. I know I am fully in my boundaries to do so, but it felt a bit bizarre. Anyways continuing onwards, I have joined HF just over a year ago and I care very much about the website as well as the community. I led Apex for several months, donated quite a bit of money, and have participated in a variety of different subforums throughout HF both in and out of the marketplace. I learned a lot from HF over the past year and have developed a lot of close relationships with lots of different people. I've always been interested in continuously giving back to the community as much as I am able to. Since being in the Red Lions, I have been making efforts continue doing so but on a higher level. I have been working on several guides that will be released in the coming weeks that will hopefully help several users. I do my best to remain as HQ as possible as I conduct myself through Hack Forums. Hopefully these contributions and my carefully written posts and threads show that. Thanks.

I've dedicated lots of time thinking of positive content to post (threads, and responses), Other forms of indirect giving too.

I have count a handful of imposters on HF, which has significantly reduced scamming (bigger amounts)

I've found a LOT of Multi Accounts

I'm an unoffical mentor on HF who dedicated a lot of time helping users regardless of upgrade status.

I've given back to this site (to users) quite a bit

Reason:

I honestly consider myself a worthy contender of winning this award. I've done quite a lot (in my honest opinion, and I will list what I feel makes me qualified below. I will also say best of luck to all other qualifying members and even the members who seriously took the time to enter with hopes of winning. I'm glad I fit all of the qualificaitons to even be considered. 2016 has been quite the year for me, I've been making changes for the better. I'm a very firm believer of the Law of Attraction and believe that how you think is what is generally attracted to your life. It's also good to note that what you do for yourself and others is a big key in this belief. For the 3 years i've been on HF, i've definitely devoted time helping many users in ways I can. 2016 has been an incredible year for me and I've been extremely active this year.

To start off, I've caught nearly hundreds of multi accounters with thousands of potential accounts. One one of the links above (The Hackforums Purge) I compiled a medium sized list with users I believed to be multi accounts. If you check the profiles of most users there now, nearly all of them are banned! I have also done this on a MUCH bigger scale and personally sent my findings to Omni. This was the reason I was given The Protector award, a pretty rare award if you ask me. This action alone has saved potentially thousands on top of thousands of dollars that could of been scammed in our marketplace.

Following this, I set up Armada's impostor and provided full proof on the individual. I've done this for my own impostor too (and PM'd Omni the proof). Something like this was a huge win to me. If someone tricks a user to think they're a very trusted member on site, that could be thousands of dollars there lost alone. Many members are appreciative for taking the time to help them when some of them simply didn't even ask! I will be doing this in the future for other members, it's in the works I guess you could say.

After seeing countless threads on investing and where to put there money, I was finally driven to make a detailed tutorial on forms of investing and general knowledge for new investors. I also made this thread in hopes to get more activity in the Investment section. I feel as if that were a success, and at the same time, I was given a sticky. I would of written that guide again, sticky or no sticky. Another contribution was my introduction thread to HF. I was one of the first few members to actually do it and I felt good about doing so. I wrote what I did (honestly) in hopes to spark younger members to grow and become something on this site. Their learning and networking indirectly effects this site. More activity is generated, more business, and more giving back as a thanks to them. Feels good doing my part! I also made a Clover thread (which got over 600 replies) when the Clover Award came out. It was a lucky thread indeed as 4-6 members got clovers from that thread and posting alone. Really random but you can't say that's not lucky! Lastly, I devote a lot of time in the PMs and on Skype talking to HF members who need help and guidance. Usually members who receive rep fucks, want to grow on the site, or need general advice. Advice can go a long way, I've helped a member (2015) who is now a big member. That member is forever grateful for giving him a chance when no one would. I think that's very neat. This will conclude my reasoning. I REALLY do hope I get nominated, I love you guys.

Reason: I think we all know the reasons why Views should be in this list. I'm sorry by the way if I wasn't allowed to nominate you. But I didn't really want to tell you & I honestly couldn't think of anyone else. I've known Views ever since he joined as a normal member. I'm not 100% sure how we met again lol. All I remember is him constantly asking me how he can be a HQ member and maintain that. Mind you that he asked me this before he was even a l33t member. Now that I remember I think he added me on Skype for help becoming l33t. Something to do with buying the BTC and not getting scammed. I'm not sure, but whatever I'm getting off-topic here lol. I know a HQ member when I see one. Whether they are new, or an old member. I knew his intentions were good. And I was right about that. I've never seen someone contribute so much to this forum in the time he joined. From a normal member to having his own group and now even his own award. Maybe it's happened before I joined with someone else, but I doubt it was as fast as Views. What I linked above is probably 1/10th of what he has actually contributed to the forum. That's because everything else was through PMs, sub-forums, etc. But they were all about improving the site and himself as a member. I've never seen anyone care so much in so little time. I can go on about why I choose him. But the main two reasons are always going to be: he's a great member, and a great friend. That's why I nominate Views as Member of the Year.

Reason: I have spent a long time on here since joining, being around 50% online time compared to my join date - during this time I have helped as many users as I can through posts, teamviewer, PM, voice communication and general support. I have donated what I can to others when I can even though I don't have much to give and always help those who need it without a cost.

I try to ensure everyone has an equal opportunity to join in on discussions, not ignoring someone due to their join date or upgrade status - I encourage others to better themselves and I only ask in return they try and pay it forward one day by treating others the same.

I have many new tutorials coming out soon with tools and hardware hacking through to creating AI interfaces and neural nets. I would like the award as I believe I can represent it in the best light possible and it will only make me want to put even more into contributions. I love the forum and love the community and I appreciate what you do on here too Views.

I have caught many scammers who were dealt with offsite which earned the spooky award, and I still continue to do so - I think it's wrong and I encourage others to not stand by and let people get away with it.

I come on Hackforums to learn and share and that's what I will continue to do for as long as I am here - I have only been here a year and a half but in that time have done everything I can to benefit others.

I can't do money/material giveaways unfortunately but I am here to stay and here to share.

Best of luck to all those who are nominated -

Cheers.
