

Forum:Hack Forums

Thread: I attended this years Dick Clark's New Years Rockin Eve

Aerospace - December 2, 2016, 8:16 pm

Hey bros, a lot of you probably have no idea what I'm talking about but I'll go ahead and explain.

Dick Clark's New Years Rockin Eve is the most watched TV show on New Years Eve with an average of around a billion viewers. They get all the most listened to bands/singers to perform in celebration of New Years. I was fortunate enough to be involved and attend.

The event as far as I know is not easy to get invited to. If it wasn't for my friend involved in the entertainment business, I would have never gone.

You might ask, how did you go if it is on New Years? Well, there are 2 versions of the event. The performances in LA are all pre recorded during November. The performances in NY are actually live.

So yeah sorry if I spoiled anyones childhood or anything like that. LA's performances for the event are not live on New Years.

I'm here to answer anyones questions, like what my experience was like, who is performing, random cool stuff to tell about.

PS. They made it clear that nobody is allowed to talk about the event before New Years but I don't give a fuck.