Hello guys , i got some money for my birthday , and i m interested in buying fifa 17 , but i didnt try it , have any of you give me some origin account with fifa 17 to try, you would help me a lot , cause i m not very well with financial status so i cant risk with it thanks in advance?

If you cannot afford to buy the game why would you want to try it?

It being your birthday is irrelevant. Also, why is this in the bragging section?
Go over a friends house that has it and try it.
