Thread: Are you a troll? Troll rage

liam270591 - December 3, 2016, 2:51 pm

This one is very simple but be honest are you a troll? Perhaps not here on HF but in general?

I was on another forum and I saw someone with thousands of posts and what seemed to be a really good reputation randomly trolling and Flaming people in threads with death threats etc?

Now we all know that Driving can be stressful (I hate being stuck in traffic) and Road rage is a a recognised issue, More so in long travel.

Is it possible to be sat behind a computer for too long and have a similar problem? All of a sudden you just see red and start to troll? lol

Is it possible? Probably. You sit in front of a community of Trolls long enough without any other interaction and if you're weak you'll mold into one.

HAHA lol. That is perfect :) But seriously yeah that is a good answer and makes sense. The more you are around something the higher the chance you will become that something
