Very nice thread design and looks like a very nice group as well. Unfortunately not meeting any of the requirements to apply. :(

Good luck to all participants. :)

So guys this Group is Amazing i just can recommend this. The tutorial are so nice and noob friendly ---> me ^^.

cibor is one of the friendliest guys in all HF. For this price it is a very good Deal and u will learn a lot.

Viiikinki - December 28, 2016, 2:59 am

I can also suggest this cause i was in Royalty before my account got exiled.

I was in ethical hacking subforum and also i made tutorials. (pahapoika91)

Theres many talented hackers in royalty (exploit.c and cudacore for example) so the tutorials are HQ!

Good luck to new students!

Sounds like a really awesome group. I have two questions:

- 1) Will I be able to do everything on a Mac, or will this require getting Linux through a VM?
- 2) How many hours will it take to complete the entire program? I am highly interested in networking and learning more about it and should I decide to join the group, I would be investing a minimum of 5 hours a day on weekdays and 10 hours on the weekends.

You will have to setup a VM with linux.
About hours, it depends on your current knowledge and if you're learning fast or slow. 5 hours a day sound very good.

I'll definitely keep this in mind. How's the content looking? Is it produced at a quick rate? (I see Cibor's threads are the only tutorials listed, and ArtMachine seems to supply virtual goods). As someone going into cyber security for higher education and a career, what would the benefit of the student program be (what do you offer that I may not find elsewhere)?

In fact I am not the only one making tutorials, there are other members who created great tutorials based on their past experience and not just theory. I think this is what you might not find elsewhere.

- 1) You replied earlier that we hard to set up a Linux VM, does it have to be 64 bit?
 - 2) Approximately how much time would one have to devote to this daily in order to pass the test at the end?
 - 3) Do you accept unverified paypal?
- Does not have to be 64 bit.
At least 1 hour.
Is it your own paypal?

Thanks for your answer and good luck with your group ?

pr0f3ss0r - March 6, 2017, 6:05 pm

I've got a couple of questions. I wanna know what the program looks like. Is it like a course which has course outline, topics to be covered like a structured tutorial or is it like guys writing articles with topic of choice in their area of expertise? Do you provide video tutorial or some kind of hands-on.

What are the rules to get approved as a student and can you opt-out at anytime you want?

I_who_hack - March 9, 2017, 10:24 pm

Only reason I am filling out this application is because I like your graphics you have for what you used to display joining. Thats about the only reason.

1. What are your interests?

My interests are pretty much learning and helping others learn along the way. I am self taught with everything I know. I used to do a hell of a lot of web app pentesting now I focus mainly on software exploitation and vulnerability research. I have knowledge ranging from coding in C C++ Java javascript python ruby and some SQL. Mainly from judging on the type of posts you shared I have a feeling I will be bringing quite a lot of skills to the table.

2. How much time are you planning to spend on the program?

I will be honest I fucking hate programming I enjoy to rather spend time in windbg and ida reversing software

3. Which payment method would you like to use?

Im not gonna pay shit to join a group if you want you want me I also need to get some people who wanna buy either recently discovered vulns exploit packs or who want to buy low shit tier 0days. All exploits I bring to the group are for research purposes only

I WANT TO MAKE THIS CLEAR I DO NOT CONDONE BLACK HAT ACTIVITIES WHAT SO EVER

I bring research and knowledge I will not help with any shady shit what so ever I dont believe in a life of crime fast money is bad money.

MackyNous - March 10, 2017, 12:57 am

1. What are your interests? I am interested in pentesting, programming, soical engineering and reverse engineering.

2. How much time are you planning to spend on the program? I am 12 hours per day online and 6 hours per day programming and working for school.

3. Which payment method would you like to use? Unfortunately I am broke, I hope this wont be a problem :) xD jawsh33 - March 11, 2017, 8:33 am

This would be pretty good if you ignored the freebies, focused on what's important and reduced the price.

mcdaviz - March 11, 2017, 7:04 pm

1. What are your interests? reverse engineering, password cracking, exploits
2. How much time are you planning to spend on the program? much time possible. i am always online for over 15 hrs a day at times trying to learn new stuff so i think this good for me as well.
3. Which payment method would you like to use? gonna prefer perfect money.

would have love to join this if not that i have wasted money on craps, i am always curious about knowing things and if i can be enrolled and i pay later i wouldn't mind but i promise not to disappoint you in any way in return. By the way i can set up linux VM up easily hunterr - March 11, 2017, 8:06 pm

Asked before about free but now I'm prob gonna get this for a birthday present

1. What are your interests?
Botnets, pentesting, just messing around generally
2. How much time are you planning to spend on the program?
As mich as I need to, and then some
3. Which payment method would you like to use?
Most likely paypal

umm i can program for you or i can pay but i don't have all the money atm. ill pm you once i do.

Hatah - May 14, 2017, 8:27 pm

Please pm me I would like to get started.

Waerloga - May 21, 2017, 1:05 am

1. What are your interests?
Cyber security, web development / website vulnerability testing, privacy and online anonymity. I would like to strengthen my knowledge in areas that I am experienced, while also learning things in other areas and developing new interests. I strive to help others in any way that I can, and I love to teach those who are willing and capable of learning. In a nutshell, I'd like to become a productive White Hat, and as a long-term goal I am seeking to make a career out of it in some way or another.

2. How much time are you planning to spend on the program?

This will vary depending on my work schedule, as well as time spent on my website and other real-life responsibilities. However, at the very least I will be able to dedicate two hours per day to this. Likely a bit more in most cases.

3. Which payment method would you like to use?

I will not dispute that the cost of this program is well justified, however it is a bit steep for my current financial situation. In any case, I'm sure that I can be of some use to the group. I won't disappoint, as I have an unending passion for this and the drive to accomplish a great deal of things in this area of expertise. I'll stick around and do my part to give back to the group that gave so much to me. If something cannot be negotiated, I'll try to save up the money and come back when I can afford it. I'm not interested in a T-shirt, VPN, Hosting, or anything like that. I'm far more interested in the community and knowledge that is being offered.

F0013Y - May 22, 2017, 10:27 am

It looks good will join if you could answer a question What exactly is the teaching methods is there any 1 on 1 or help like that or is it just read some guides and hack this box?
