Thread: [\[SALE\] Sector in Nightmare \(Mod Privileges\) Reduced price \$220 \(OPEN TO OFFERS\)](#)

Dredd - December 6, 2016, 4:38 am

Hello all,

I am unfortunately going to be selling Nefarious due to my sectors inactivity and my inability due to time to manage it properly. I've realized due to the nature of my sector it wasn't going to work because I was attempting to focus too much on physical product development which is hard to manage on a digital forum.

Nightmare is rebranding so this is a great time to snap this up.

Overall Nightmare is an awesome group to be a part of and would recommend it to anyone, The Grim is a very honorable and understanding person. I'm already regretting selling this but I know it's best for the group and my sector.

You must re-brand the group.

Starting Bid: $220 (Open to offers)

Min increments: $5

Current Bid:

BIN: $275

Payment Type: BTC

End Date: TBD

Stipulations: I can end the auction and accept an offer at any time.

What you get:

A sub forum in Nightmare with password protection so only people you grant the password to can access it.

You will be able to recruit 7 members from outside of the Nightmare group.

You can also recruit anyone who's already in Nightmare (This doesn't count to the 7 member limit but if they get kicked for inactivity from Nightmare they will no longer be apart of your Sector, unless you give them one of the 7 member positions)

There is also a $25 mod fee to Omni which will need to be paid.

You also get an 7 month guarantee with this (Provided by The Grim) if the group (Nightmare) is sold within 7 months you will get a $275 refund from The Grim.

If you have any other questions or worries please shoot me a PM ?

Thanks,
Dredd.

The GRim - December 6, 2016, 4:40 am

Very sad to see this.

Good luck with your future endeavors and please keep in mind that there will be a $25 extra charge that you have to pay to Omni.

You are not allowed to sell buyins.

Also you can invite a maximum of 7 members including yourself for your sector.

Razex - December 6, 2016, 4:49 am

Sad to see it go, but it was hard to maintain given the current situation, Grim is a respectable guy and nightmare was a great place to be.

Good luck to future owners!

Payment installs? Or will it have to be paid in full?

Rasta - December 6, 2016, 6:01 pm

I have been in the group for a day or two, but all the HQ members inside, activites going on and discussions are amazing.

Wish I had been in for longer, but I hope I'll stay!

Seriously, anyone who gets this will have access to some sick resources and members to consult with.

GL to everyone!

It's just the "maximum" of 7 people that's killing me and the fact you're not allowed to try making your money back once purchased.

If it wasn't like that I'd be game.

The limit is to ensure that the group stays HQ. And again there are lots of ways to monetize a group selling buy ins isn't the only way of making money lol.

SIM-1472133 - December 13, 2016, 3:25 am

You can't make a decent sector with only 7 members.

EDIT: You can easily make a decent sector with 7 members and the 7 member limit is final sorry for any confusion.

The GRim - December 13, 2016, 4:05 am

(Dec 13, 2016 04:31 AM)Dredd Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Again it's not set in stone the other sector has 10 members.

7 members is the max for you.

The Society is an exception.

You are not allowed to sell Buysins.

You are not allowed to ask for donation from group members.

You are not allowed to add more than 7 members to the sector.

The GRim - December 13, 2016, 4:13 am

And Mr. Burnham always told me it wasn't set in stone he said you could make an exception if need be?

Sorry for the confusion.

It stays with the sector.

Still for sale guys and gals Hmu with offers and feel free to PM if you have any questions.

big dick rick - December 14, 2016, 1:41 am

how much did you pay?

Dredd - December 14, 2016, 8:23 am

(Dec 14, 2016 02:41 AM)big dick rick Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) how much did you pay?

I'm not profiting from this put it that way.

Also I've updated the OP with the correct information about member limits.

You're allowed to recruit 7 members that aren't already in Nightmare. You're allowed to recruit any members that are already in Nightmare (Recruiting a member who's already in Nightmare won't effect your 7 member limit, but if they get kicked from Nightmare they will no longer be apart of your sector unless you offer them one of the 7 member slots)

So in theory you can have yourself plus 7 non Nightmare members plus as many Nightmare members as you like in the sector.

I hope this clears up some things ?

Dredd - December 16, 2016, 10:48 am

Still for sale I know it's Christmas an everyone's tight on money ATM but think you could buy your loved one a sector for Christmas <3

SIM-1472133 - December 16, 2016, 6:50 pm

Best of luck with the sale mate, after hours of speaking to business partners about this we decided to give it a miss. Great opportunity for people that have the desire to run a group but dont have either the approval from omni or the money to purchase a group. A sector is the next best thing.
