Thank you Chase! I have always wanted to start a fund dedicated to upgrading users, and I figured nobody would throw random money into a pot without getting something back.

I may not be the greatest person on here for GFX, however by going with me and by donating to the shop, you're giving back to HF. Even if all you can afford to donate is a quarter, it adds up, until a user who deserves an upgrade, gets it.

Well whenever you get the chance, let me know. I plan on getting more users in on this, who can make their own threads under The Lonely Turtle umbrella. It will have one centralized wallet. When we reach $18 we pick which user we want upgraded.

The text is "Virtual Empire" and maybe put a simple crown above it. Should be clean but HQ.

The purpose is secret atm.

Color scheme: black/white or Black/white/gold

Size: 600px x 100px

I appreciate your work! Thanks in advance.

For some god awful reason Imgur blurred the fuck out of the images. So I used postimage.org instead.

Anyways. For the banners I made 2 variations because I thought the girl was why it blurred. Then I realized imgur is just stupid.
