Hey.
This might be helpful and nice for some of you :)

Starting December 7th. you can get Assassin's Creed III for free...
Just download Uplay form Ubisoft, go to "Ubi 30 section" (btw it is something similar to steam) and they give it for free to celebrate 30th anniversary.

If you have some other useful stuff like this, feel free to share below or somewhere u can :)

Didn't know about this, thanks for sharing.
One more game to add to my library of games that will never be played

Wouldn't this be more fit in the PC or Shopping Deals Section? Nevertheless, thanks for looking out.
I will add this to my library.
