What is this sector?

If you guys don't know already, I have purchased a sector in the group BAKA This sector will be based around Innuendo and Personal Life. In this sector of Baka there will be discussions such as:

Sex life

Relationships

Relationship Advice

Vices

Money

Body

Education

Pets

Addictions

Fashion

The whole idea of it is so we can connect as a community and spread wisdom and give others advice. If one of the members are having issues with their girlfriend or wife, they can post a thread and we can all give them tips to improve the situation or advice. I have recently adapted the idea of opening this up to personal life with the additional topics added above. This group will be a desirable group to join.

Let me know what you think of this concept, recruitment is up

I think this is a pretty interesting sector. I think it'll go well since it's in an Anime Group.
