As long as Twitter exists these 2016 kids will be able to flex on people with their shitty egos. It's usually the kids with serious irl issues, so they take try to make something of themselves on the internet.

BR?ND?N - December 9, 2016, 11:06 am

GoatMafia.

Do these kids just sit around their round table and come up with shitty names.

yeah, you joined last month on the 24th, only have 10+ posts, and yet you're telling us that there is a new hacker group out there... I mean I'd understand if you were a member with over 200+ posts and shit, but it really is suspicious..

I mean I'm just stating the obvious here.. You might not own the twitter, but you are lowkey advertising it, is what it seems right now. I'm pretty sure no one on HF would have came across this account, unless someone(like you) advertised it, and told us about it.

Description - December 9, 2016, 11:12 am

Funny thing is the leader is a doxed reject
