So we make two deals, $50 btc each.

I did receive $60 from his paypal, but it is e-check, i'm not sure i will get it or not since he can always cancel it.

I'm pretty regret i do this trade ,i already felt something wrong with uptown but i still do it.

Well my advice to everyone is, if u feel that user seems sketchy, don't deal with him then!

Right click it, and click "Copy link address" and then paste that one.

Also, enter it into the deal disputes database.

I just got the payment of e-check today, and he immediately chargeback, any tips on how to win it?

Call PayPal and tell them that the user is scamming other members as well as you
