We were doing a trade for the apparent "New Mirai source code" TR-064 and a spot on his mirai net apparently hitting 360gbps. he removed me as he got the code and only gave me a old ass mirai cancer.

You shouldn't have been giving away a client that wasn't your work in the first place, and for that you're just as much as a piece of shit as Seb.

[11:44:46 AM] seb: I leaked the GHP along with BLJ

Actually I left it on a box, you (seb) gave it to "qbotisgaylol" (forgot his actual name) and then richy got a hold of it and you 3 "leaked" it. It's kinda cringe how you sold it on Instagram tbh...

Mr_Crunch - December 24, 2016, 2:38 pm

damn fam sucks your got scammed sry for your lose

Skinny Penis - December 24, 2016, 2:40 pm

I hate how all you kids that actually PAY for clients come to HF of all places... And you don't even make a thread or anything about said seller before purchasing. You literally talk for 5 mins, know nothing about the seller and go ahead and get yourself scammed. Nice work!

? Quick ? - December 24, 2016, 2:41 pm

Sorry for your loss and hope you get this resolved OP.

Have some respect for the seller.
