Oh man I remember seeing this theme years ago.

The Lounge probably isn't your best bet for this tool, either stick it in the beginner hacking section or C#/VB depending on what you used (assuming you're going to open source it)

This tool will not be free, and no we have only been working on it for a few days!

A NEW ERA... - December 14, 2016, 3:33 pm

What's the xbox one do? Interested in it.

Oh my bad, was under the impression that it would be a free tool.
S'all good, it's just web > desktop, especially with small programs
