Dear all hackforums members,

I hope all is well at your end.

if you are in PPD/CPA industry you might know my network name which is Cheerle i dont wanna write the complete name so people may think i am trying to advertising my network i already got bunch of cool earners from this site and some other popular cpa forums and now it is a time to turn back some money to all the users so i was thinking about videos program because many members are asking if you make any kind of video program that can help out user in order to get money because they dont want to waste their time in low quality guides and some quick method which get saturated after some time.

I was looking help from hackforums members if you are good earner and you know the basics about of cpa/ppd and you think after launching the program people might earn some few bucks you are welcome. We will also pay you for making HD videos on topics which goona provide you or if you have some topics please share with us and not only that you will also earn from our affiliate which you will made plus if users are come under your referral which already direct with program in that case you also earn please send us a message on skype: live.call5 for more discussion
