Thread: Green Subzero

Mister Slyther - December 18, 2016, 5:31 am

Hi guys, been working hard lately on improving my tag work. Collected all the feedback on my previous work and decided to put it all out on this one. I limited the lines and effects to keep it nice and cleaner.

Would be nice to see it with a yellow so it actually matches scorpions original color but the tag itself is very nice. A little big from what I'm used to for tag sizes but I like the use of a focal point and depth of field. Good work on this.
