Thread: BTC Giveaway | Happy Holidays

HarambeTheLegend - December 19, 2016, 5:16 am

Hello,

I normally don't do these kind of things (because I'm typically broke) but I ran into a good amount of BTC and well a few recent giveaways have inspired me enough to giveaway to some users. I've been through a lot this year, and was struggling with money, and still am. It might not sound sensible to do this, but I like giving away when I can. Especially during the holiday's.

My goal is to make some people happy, I will be giving away $100 BTC - Split between 4 people. I wish I could do more, to give more people a chance, but I promise it will be as fair as I can make it. To increase the odd's, the first 35 people to post will be entered.

How will the giveaway work? - You will post here, and answer my question of why you should win this contest, and what are you most thankful for in life? You can answer these questions however you'd like, and please be creative. I am looking for effort, and something that truly stands out to me.

I will be donating the rest of my BTC to - CHARITY

I wish you all the best of luck, everyone has a chance, and may the odds be with you all, merry Christmas!!! :)

To speed up the time, this giveaway will end on : 12/23/2016 - 5 PM EST.

I will hand pick the 4 individuals, and the same day, I will announce the winners. Thank you for your time!

phunted - December 19, 2016, 5:17 am

MegaMan- - December 19, 2016, 5:25 am

why you should win this contest, and what are you most thankful for in life?

Mr. Thijs - December 19, 2016, 5:31 am

why I should win this contest, and what are you most thankful for in life?

Because I feel like I have been working really hard on school and could really use the money to get myself an upgrade on here. The most thankful in life am I for the fact that I can learn on school and actually educate myself so I get a good job later and can buy stuff myself and get childs etc.

itsTummy - December 19, 2016, 5:32 am

why you should win this contest, and what are you most thankful for in life?

kookur - December 19, 2016, 5:34 am

why I should win this contest, and what are you most thankful for in life?

I live with my family and it's great that they have always supported me into most of the things even if i was wrong being a kid and i love them from the deepest of my heart and work hard always to watch them happy and live with less or no pain or discomfort.

Skin - December 19, 2016, 5:35 am

Would love to win. The money would go towards paying bills and yeah, help me economically in life. The rest will most likely go to presents to bring joy to others.

I'm most grateful for waking up each morning and being blessed. Looking at how we live and what we have compared to others is very easy to overlook.

Thanks for hosting and merry christmas. ?

Kaspah - December 19, 2016, 5:38 am

I would like to win this contest because I am extremely unlucky when it comes down to these types of things, I've lost over $300 gambling and I'm still motivated. I plan on purchasing an award / upgrade if I win. I am also thankful for this giveaway and opportunity. Have a great day and again, thank you.

God - December 19, 2016, 5:38 am

why I should win this contest, and what are you most thankful for in life?

I don't have PayPal (underage) meaning that all my money has to be earnt and not exchanged, and since everyone on this forum literally uses only BTC, it is hard for me to buy stuff to invest in to make money. Essentially I have a low BTC capital. I have used my friend's PP account to hold money, however, I can't continue hassling him everytime I need a currency exchange.

$25 will be a huge amount for me (I'm at $100 atm from $0) and I hope that it can lead me to a good investment. I will also use some of this money to repay someone on this forum who kindly gifted me uber.

Thank you very much for hosting this giveaway, and good luck to all.

Glad to see you're also donating to charity.

I am most thankful for the education I have.

Merry Christmas!

?Dominate - December 19, 2016, 5:39 am

I should win the contest because the money that's being given away could potentially become my future product.

As of now, I am lurking the forums to find users who are selling re-sale rights for their product. I am looking for one with high potential and could make me earn even more.

I am most thankful to my parents and friends, without them I wouldn't be alive and my life would be so boring and gloomy.

Reporter - December 19, 2016, 5:40 am

Tought question, a am grateful for a lot, Mostly my family to give me a life and that I have a roof above my head and can go to bed every night

ILY ? - December 19, 2016, 6:14 am

Why should I win this contest?

Well I was thinking of buying few gifts for my family and the loved ones. A harmonica for my old man. A necklace and a ring for both sister and mom. And maybe a nice toy for little brother. You know something to cheer them up and make them happy!

What are you most thankful for in life?

In fact, Every Single Thing.

You see, we should be thankful for everything we have:

Being able to read this post right now, that's something exceptional you know! A lot of people are blind, also a lot have hard times when reading it due to dyslexia.

Being able to understand this post, while a lot others can't because they suffer from mental problems, or they are not feeling sane due to them not eating since long time ago, or they are busy trying to understand how someone they love passed away.

Being able to reply to this post, while a lot are handicapped and can't use their hands to type their response to this.

Being able to live after this, while others are fated to die in the next few hours.

People are dying everyday, people are crying everyday, people are starving everyday, people are sick everyday.

A lot wish to be in your shoes right now.

Appreciate what you have so you can have a better taste of your life!

Cheers.

I need the NTC saving up for a award also I am most thankful to be alive!

Similarity - December 19, 2016, 6:27 am

I should win this contest because i could really use some money to spend on family and friends. I am 15, meaning I do not have much money which kinda brings me onto my next point. I am most thankful to my parents for bringing me up and caring for me the way they have. I could not imagine what my life would be right now if I didnt have the parents i have. They have looked after me, went to all these football and rugby matches with me in the cold, freezing their arses off because of me. I would just like to pay them back some how.

Thanks for the giveaway and good luck to all who enter!

Evanescent - December 19, 2016, 7:25 am

Why you should win this contest, and what are you most thankful for in life?

Since the amount here is being split up in parts that are 25$ per winner.
I believe I have done a lot of giveaways in the past in 2012 and 2013, you can check it out.

I even have helped many with my paid service for free and you can ask me for a proof which I have done recently.

I am most thankful to God in whose hand is my soul then comes my parents.

Hope that is sufficient.
Good luck all and may the odds be in my favour.

Goku???? - December 19, 2016, 7:32 am

There's no real reason as to why I myself should win it, I mean, there are going to be a lot of people giving a reason as to why they should win it. So you know what? I'll post about why it's going to be a great benefit to any user who wins this. Let's put it this way, any sum of money whether obtained through hard work or won within a giveaway will always be of great help to anyone. Whether this could be the start to a business they've been planning or the finishing touches to a goal that they've been saving towards, this will definitely make any user happy. If I personally were to win any amount, I'd give back to the community because I've learnt so much from the users here. I've seen the bad side of this forum but I've also seen a lot of the good. I surely do appreciate those who have guided me when I needed it and I will surely pay it forward to those who are in need of guidance.

I'm thankful for my family and the friends that have become like family. I'm grateful for being able to live in a beautiful country such as Australia. I guess I'm just mainly thankful for being alive and for all the opportunities that I am able to undertake that others may not be able to have. Little things such as clean drinking water, clothing on my back, a roof over my head and food to keep me full.

Nasal - December 19, 2016, 7:33 am

I should win this contest because I really love this forum, and I'll be buying an award with the money so I could help support it.

I'm thankful for my parents and my friends. I don't know what I'd be without them, I'd be a mess and without my parents, I'd be just another sperm cell.

The Dark Hacker - December 19, 2016, 8:01 am

BTB™ - December 19, 2016, 8:10 am

1. Why I should win this contest:

I have been contributing to the HF community from the very beginning of my tenure. It can be in the IT section, suggestions for improving HF, Giveaways, In lounge chatting with my friends, Gaming and last but not the least in the Monetizing section with some unique earning methods.

I earned L33T, UB3R & 3P1C by winning competitions only! People have recognized my hard work earlier too! I can easily say; HF is my second home now!

The general services that I have offered to the community are -

- ? Content Writing / Home Work Services ?
- ? Assignments regarding MS Office ?
- ? Managing Official Group Activities ?
- ? Bringing Positive Energy in members ?
- ? Super Active ?
- ? Effective & Smart Advertising ?
- ? Excel related projects ?
- ? Thread Designing (Not graphics; rather making it interesting) ?
- ? Some Noise (on a positive side) in the community! ?

2. I am most thankful for:

Basically everything! I believe in a theory that we should be thankful to the GOD for each and everything we have got in our life.... Just like the saying goes - Attitude of Gratitude! Yeah guys, always remember to thank GOD for everything that he has blessed you with. You would feel more satisfied, happy and would lead a peaceful and a charming life. ?

I would further like to mention that "What will I do with the money?" (in case I win)

I have got a job now, but my mom is not well since last 6 months. Actually, doctors say, she can't be normal again. ? She has gone in to Dementia - loss of memory. Her body is paralysed. I love my mom and will treat her till my last breath. I am still incurring huge medical bills; at times my job is not sufficient for the same. In case I win this contest, the winning amount would really help me.

Last but not the least; thanks a ton for organizing this contest! ?

lucky. - December 19, 2016, 8:20 am

Closest reason to why I should win, I'm not the most well-off person, though not the poorest either. I'm thankful for the opportunities, its really the only reason I am alive. I have chances to make or break it.

Av?I?r - December 19, 2016, 9:53 am

Thank you so much for the opportunity!

I'm most thankful for my online friends. One, in particular, I don't know how I would do without. He's been there for me when no one else has, and knows more about me than anyone, even my family. I hope that one day we can meet in person, or maybe even live nearby. Eighteen years on this Earth, and he's really the only true friend I've ever had.

So I think I should win, but maybe not should win. It's always difficult for me to answer why I should win in situations like these, where I'm just accepting someone else's generous donation. Who am I to say who should win? This is why I want to win. I want to win because my friends already know I love them unconditionally, but I want them to know that I would go out of my way to get them something special, because they know I don't have much to give in terms of money or gifts. Making others happy, as many people as I can, is what makes me happy. And to me, it's worth any amount of money.

Happy holidays to you all! ^_^

?I???po?N? - December 19, 2016, 9:56 am

Thanks for hosting this giveaway, I do really appreciate it that you are giving back to the community and giving us this opportunity.

The reason I think I should win this contest is because I'm going through quite some hard times lately.

I got fired last oktober because the company I worked for couldn't pay me anymore and since that moment I have trouble finding a new job. Kinda starting to feel the effects financial now (still had some savings) so that sucks a lot, but I have good hope on finding a new job soon since I'm really trying to. So I can really use any donation.

Back to the question about what I am the most thankful for in life is actually life itself. It might sound a bit strange, but it's quite a privilege to be one of that million spermatozoa that gain life.

This is the reason I wanna live life to the fullest and make the best out of it, when I'm old I wanna be able to say that I really lived.
