Juicy - December 19, 2016, 2:49 pm

Illuminati is a group of individuals who've proved their worth and power to the forum.

Userbar

Hello, my name is Juicy- and I am the leader of the Marketing/Revenue sector of Illuminati. This sector will have a focus on all things related to money.

I am selling buy-ins for a spot in the group for $15 per person. I am not sure how many buy-ins I will be accepting as of now.

If you choose to purchase a spot into the Illuminati Marketing/Revenue sector, you will have full access to the group. You will receive the many perks that come along with membership of The Illuminati. These include:

- Access to private subforums
- Discussions that will not be found elsewhere
- Private methods that will be posted
- etc.

The access purchased here will be for the lifetime that I am the leader of the Marketing/Revenue sector given you do not break Illuminati rules. If you do not break the rules, you will not be removed. Please stay active and post on activity checks as those do count as rules. If you are not active, you will be kicked.

Payments will be made via BTC unless you discuss with me and I deem you eligible of paying via PayPal.

These rules are subject to change at any time.

IF YOU WERE KICKED FOR ANY REASON OTHER THAN INACTIVITY AND YOU BOUGHT IN, PM ME

Academy Awards - December 19, 2016, 2:52 pm

100% worth it for sure! Good luck with sales! I got a buy-in and I am already loving it!

Kaspah - December 19, 2016, 2:53 pm

Aren't there buy-ins for a different sector much cheaper? Why should we buy into yours instead of the other?

brTT PaiNN - December 19, 2016, 2:54 pm

The other sector was doing it for $10.

I can't find the link on mobile but I'm 100% positive.

There was previously a sector selling buy-ins for $15, but no more.

As this is a Marketing/Revenue sector I feel as it could be more beneficial, and I plan on releasing projects and such that could make it more beneficial.

Can I be unblacklisted if I buy-in?

GodlessOlympian - January 1, 2017, 9:20 pm

May I reserve a buy-in? I'm really just interested in having that cool user bar under my name. But then again, if I get accepted into Eclipse I think I'd just roll with theirs...

Oh boy, decisions.
