"you see that kid over there? he sells roblox items and he's made quite a bit of money"

"lol"

SlayeRR - December 20, 2016, 4:38 pm

Dude corned the Roblox market early and essentially gets to steal the items then price them as he pleases because he has half the economy in his possession.

Good work bud, younger than a lot of the members on this forum and making more per month than they make in a year.

You still sell ROBLOX items? Interesting, thought the market for it would have died by now.
Have major limiteds increased or decreased?
