Thread: Dawn Innuendo - Information Thread

Nevieth - December 20, 2016, 9:59 pm

From the team that brought you 143, The Empire, Dawn, and Phoenix.

"The first rays of light that sustain a new day."

Dawn Innuendo - General Information

Main IntroductionsDawn has existed since the beginning to help others, and to make the community a better place for everyone. It's time to get back to our roots.

Dawn was originally founded one year ago as a Gaming group, it quickly evolved into a place of learning. We had classes, lessons, and help threads all over the place. Now, Dawn has quieted down, but not for long. From the team that ran Phoenix, Empire, and volunteered with 143, I introduce Dawn Innuendo.

How To JoinAnyone may apply to join the innuendo section, however you must show a level of dedication beyond the subforum and beyond the initial application. Most users will be invited in based on threads and posts they've made within the Innuendo and Health subforums. We'll exist to help the public, so counting activity based on posts in the sub-forum would be a bad way of running things. This won't be a second job, and of course your real life takes priority. Being a part of this sector isn't a chore, and we want to make sure you want to take part.

Whats to be ExpectedWhat does it take to be a part of Dawn Innuendo? The resolve to help others. You'll be expected to provide support, help desks, or whatever you can to help the public community. Sit down and chat with a newbie, talk through someone's stress and listen to their worries, do what you can to make things easier for someone else.

Final WordsNow what? We start building ourselves up as a valuable resource to the community. We're here for the forum and it's members, so please don't hesitate to private message myself or any other Innuendo member. We honestly love helping others, so let us help you. We'll start by targeting the innuendo and health subforums, and work our way up from there.

- Target Topics and Points -

What we'll be aiming for is to provide these services and help desks to the community for free.

LGBTQ+ Assistance & Information
Suicide Prevention
Healthy Habits & Diets

Exercise Methods
Relationship Support & Feedback
Depression & Anxiety Support
Hygiene Tips & Product Uses
And much, much more

"Lead by Example, let us guide the way to the light"

There's currently no recruitment thread open for this sector yet, but show dedication and genuine interest in the innuendo and you'll be noticed.

The hype is real. ?

I lurk a lot in the Innuendo forum, so I'll be watching out for people to suggest to Nev~

Show genuine compassion and empathy!

Cabo - December 20, 2016, 10:06 pm

I'm glad to see something like this has come back. I loved 143 and Phoenix.

Awesome, definitely send me some profiles if you find someone truly interested in helping others. :)

Absolutely! Phoenix helped shape my time here on HF, so the least I could do is give back in a similar way.

Thanks so much Night Fury! It's going to be great to expand Dawn into innuendo.

Good luck, Nevieth. You're the perfect guy for this, can't wait to see how this turns out.

Tree of Life - December 21, 2016, 12:19 am

This is a great thing which I'm glad to see. Best of luck.

BR?ND?N - December 21, 2016, 12:44 am

I'd love to join for the suicide prevention, I'm fairly suicidal. I write about it on my tumblr daily while listening to black veil brides.

In all honesty I'd love to join and help people.

Perfect - December 21, 2016, 2:16 am

I actually teach classes to my fellow soldiers on our ACE program.. (ask care escort)

We teach suicide prevention and help those who have the warning signs involved with it.. sadly we can't save everyone but the slightest voice can change a person perspective on life.. I know this all too real.. if you're interested in hearing more about this I would like for you to shoot me a pm and maybe we can work something out.

This looks like it's going to be great for HF for those who truly take it seriously.. hopefully I could be a part of the program as well in addition to my statements above.

That's actually really cool lol. Good for you, giving back to the world.

Just going to post to 100% confirm this is Nevieth's gig.
Looking forward to great things.

ze-slade - December 21, 2016, 11:01 am

Good luck, there's one in baka too I think it's an innuendo sector, at least. It's s nice to see people are opining up a more mature innuendo section, in a way. I know the one that only has a prestige requirement has some trolls.

B?ker - December 21, 2016, 11:05 am

I'll definitely apply for this love helping people with relationships and just advice about life

Thanks ze-slade! I know about WallFlower, I was one of the first three or so people ChromeProducts added into his sector. From my understanding he's building a high quality, but closed community innuendo section.

My goal is to rebuild the public innuendo section from the ground up, just like how 143 and Phoenix was doing. I've worked closely with many amazing individuals on HF, and I know with a bit of love and dedication, we can rebuild the section and remove the stigma that it's a low effort section.

Innuendo is about to get real, again. ?

(Dec 21, 2016 12:05 PM)?MrDark Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) I'll definitely apply for this love helping people with relationships and just advice about life

I'll look forward to your application! I'll give you a tip... the recruitment phase will be based around actual experience and previous posts / threads you've made throughout the forum.

I'm doing it like this because anyone can write up an application for the Dawn userbar, but what we're looking for is someone who's actually dedicated and interested in building something as a family.

We must lead by example.

I'm adding everyone I can find who's still active. I'm not just picking out Phoenix members though, I'm also checking to make sure their post history and recent activity warrants an invite.

I've got .Sinister, Cooligan, iKinky, Nehssa, and a few others from Phoenix. Others may be joining again soon.

Oh and do you use Discord? PM me your discord address.

Xepher The Cat - December 25, 2016, 7:48 pm

Good luck. I was in Phoenix, it was a great group. I hope this section radiates the same aura.

I'm doing everything I can to ensure it has the same feel to it that Phoenix did. Thankfully we got mama Nehssa in here to make things better. :P

Thanks for the support! I don't know about any sort of public application process right now, but when we do one it'll be primarily based off previous posts and experience.

I recommend posting actively in the innuendo and health section. As the motto says, lead by example.

Oh and thanks Sahaj for the group sector graphics, I've updated OP with a new look.

I was in 143 for a bit and I thoroughly enjoyed it. It was nice to see others help people, but also to give people advice on what I and others were going through.

SIM-1472133 - December 31, 2016, 9:03 pm

Best of luck with this sector. After having a chat with Nev, we have decided to be competitive and see which sector will take over.....jk I am confident that we are going to be doing stuff together. As soon as this sector has expanded a bit more we will see how WallFlower and Dawn can work together!

Haha I can see the confusion!

I meant anyone may join the innuendo sector, but we're not openly recruiting. I'm inviting those who're active in the innuendo section and bringing them in.

So yes, anyone can join, no, you can't apply. My mistake. ?

Nevieth - March 10, 2017, 1:45 pm

Bringing this back up because I'm not giving up on the project. We've collected a great roster of members, now I just need to build activity.

This isn't an official recruitment post, but please PM me directly with previous activity in innuendo if you'd like to join. I'll be going through each entry personally.

I'm not going to edit OP with this information, I want real commitment from people, so only those digging through this thread will see this.

Traum - March 19, 2017, 3:00 pm

Vouch for Nevieth, really chilled dude and this seems like a great project!

Overall it reminds me of 143 and I hope you will live up to what they've done for this forum!

It was always my dream to become a member of 143 but then they vanished, maybe Dawn Innuendo is a new chance for people that always wanted to join 143 but couldn't because it got closed before they were invited.

I'll probably apply later on when I got enough prestige to post in the innuendo forum. ?

SIM-403479 - March 19, 2017, 3:43 pm

Looks like another cool sector. May apply for this when I have chance to put an application together.

Nevieth - March 19, 2017, 3:45 pm

For those considering applying please do so on our official recruitment thread.
