Hello everyone,

I was away from HF due to some real life issues . Its been few month since i am active on HF, and it looks like both my Skype and Jabber ID are jacked, i was not able to login to my IM's , i kindly request everyone to not deal with me on these ID .

I have lost access to recovery mails as well . So from now on i will take orders only ON-Site. I will try to come back on forum business till then have patience .

Thank you ?

Edit:

I just recovered both skype and jabber accounts via email recovery. I had my email logged in as remember me on another PC. I just remember and recovered all my accounts. Everything is safe now Thanks for being patient guys. ?

Try looking to get back the recovery emails, maybe they have recovery emails too, or they'll have some security questions.

I didnt created my skype ID on my real name , had to use fake info as everyone do .I do not even remember the security question answer, can't recover them back ?

Thanks for noticing this sir , i hope this thread will help other members to stay safe , as i have seen multiple impersonating accounts on my name , and finally someone hijacked the real account.
