Non-uber members can't upgrade other non-ubers to uber.

My apologies, I'd be happy to complete something else for you should the interest arise.

Why would you sell awards more than they are worth ?

Hello,

Some people can't find an exchanger or spend the time to find one, I offer awards for the same price you would pay to have your BTC exchanged, saving you time by simply buying the award instead of going through the trouble of finding a trusted exchanger and then buying the award.

I also pay all fees associated.

Thanks!
