Hello Hackforums,

So first of all merry Christmas! I hope you guys enjoying your day. Yesterday my Killer Kamal, contacted a user that is a member of the Nightmare. He asked him if he could help him exchanging his Paypal to btc as he is postbanned + got repfucked. And he offered his self to help Killer Kamal. Killer Kamal thought he was legit but he wasn't. He scammed him over the $346 in Paypal and more!

My friend can't make any deal dispute because he's postbanned. So the scammer is taking advantage of him. Be careful and don't deal with that retard!

Mail i've just got.

You do not post it here. You post in the marketplace discussions & leave a community alert.

Wrong section sir, head over to Deal Disputes.

So your banned friend (Killer Kamal) got scammed by a member and you're trying to do what exactly?

Just wondering why you created this thread, not here to judge nor decide who is right or wrong.

?-? ??? ????? - December 25, 2016, 4:07 am

Wrong section but thanks for the heads up anyway I guess.

Just wondering why you created this thread, not here to judge nor decide who is right or wrong. I ve recived a request to post this...and and an e-mail.

I posted it without investigate because i dont like scammers in any way.

Although Omni wrote somewhere: Do not trust anyone here.

Or something like that

1. Don't ever post a deal dispute on someone's behalf.
2. We have a section dedicated to deal disputes.
