Thread: The only people that make money from Ebooks are the people that make Ebooks.

Donald Trump Jr. - December 27, 2016, 12:22 am

Couldn't have said a more true statement.

Brendan - December 27, 2016, 12:22 am

It's one of the unwritten guidelines of HF.

DotGlass - December 27, 2016, 12:24 am

What about a Ebooks of how make Ebooks?

This will make an infinite loop destroying the economy and the entire world.

Terry A. Davis - December 27, 2016, 12:24 am

Now to delete this thread, make an ebook and sell this exact method :^)

Jamiec - December 27, 2016, 12:28 am aha this is so true! usually once there money making slows up they release their eBook ;)

Bluffer - December 27, 2016, 12:28 am

Not all eBooks are bad just most.

perilperilperil - December 27, 2016, 12:32 am i sold an ebook 5 copies every person made money was blackhat though lol had to stop selling and its now saturated

Mario - December 27, 2016, 12:55 am

I only ever bought about 3 ebooks from this site; long ago. Each was super vouched for and highly rated. But na. They are saturated from having even just a few people doing the method or they are just glorified bullshit. I'd love to be proven wrong but I'm not going to spend money to do do

HFTetramorph - December 27, 2016, 12:58 am

Time to make an ebook on how to make $1000 dollars weekly.

All it says is to resell this ebook on how to make $x weekly.

Easy.

Really, the only ebook ever worth its money are ones that actually teach you how to do something, like break into RDPs, or skim proxies or something. Anything that advertises any money benefits is not going to make you any money. A smart business person would never allow more competition in his marketplace. So he either tapped out, or never was in it to begin with.

There was actually a person on HF a couple of years ago that sold an ebook that the method was selling ebooks on HF to make money.

Lol I might make a ebook on how to make money selling ebooks.

CULTSWEGMAFIA - December 27, 2016, 1:47 am

I sold an ebook on here one time, got $10 every few hours almost every day. I gave someone resale rights for so cheap lol

You don't make an eBook on HackForums because you want to share a cool method and help people.

You make an eBook on HF because you know idiots will buy it.

CloUd - December 27, 2016, 2:47 am

Not true I've bought ebooks off here that have helped me make money before

(Dec 27, 2016 01:58 AM)Involution Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) False

Not only does your statement break the character rule, it is also false.

I have bought an e-book on HF for 40$ btc and have made 2k $ + btc from it at the time before it was saturated. It only became as saturated because other HF retards were too fucking lazy to work for their own income and decided to let others do the work for them, paying them. Ending up with not even 10% of what they could have potentially made. (and attracting less people, thus giving others more time to drain their potential money)

Now, I'm not an e-book buyer. But I knew Aura was a valuable member of the community, he vouched for it and i did not hesitate buying it. Yes, most vouches are friend politics.

However Aura was different in my books considering he helps everyone and their grandma out without expecting anything in return.

Repous - December 27, 2016, 7:30 am

Well that is true what did you expect? That book saying lose 1000 pounds in 3 days with this secret formula or learn how to l33t hack ?

Bugs Bunny - December 27, 2016, 7:30 am

Thats 100% True

Regards.

Bulletin - December 27, 2016, 7:32 am

At the end of the day, you can never trust an ebook no matter how vouched it is. It's not hard to ask a friend to vouch for you. If you buy an ebook, you're plain stupid. End of story.

g?th - December 27, 2016, 7:32 am

Not true, most eBooks not related to autopilot $100 a day work pretty well.

Spouse - December 27, 2016, 7:33 am

Actually I think most e-books worked at one point (well the ones with new ideas) but they just got saturated quickly.

Prophett - December 27, 2016, 7:34 am

Juicy's money making methods are legit m8 wat u on about? o.0

Lamee-Ven0m - December 27, 2016, 7:42 am

Its just like asking an entrepreneur to share his ways of making his money with a full on tutorial, not gonna happen!

Ebooks on hf are aids tbh, I bought two (how to get a successful dispute claim on pp and some other shit that didnt work..

Trappy - December 27, 2016, 7:52 am

I've got one return of investment from an ebook that was a pyramid scheme, lost money on all others.

A NEW ERA... - December 27, 2016, 7:53 am

Tbh i'd say I haven't bout a good eBook yet, and never will. Sucks that people fall for this in 2016.

It really depends on the kind of people you somewhat trust and/or believe. Some things really do work. Vouches are 99% bs on this forum.

Pow3r - December 27, 2016, 11:56 am

This has been known since the dawn of HF. You must be new here OP. Please take the time to read the help documents, the answer you seek probably isn't in there but I'll say it is anyway as I want to appear HQ or intelligent or both and despite the fact you'll likely make a thread and ask anyway.

Also don't ask for rep as power hungry teenagers who aren't allowed to be hall monitors will neg you and feel slightly less shit about their own drab lives as a result. Your E-penis may or may not grow if you follow my guidelines. No results are assured, stated or implied.

Dab Master - December 27, 2016, 11:59 am

Obviously? Why else would they be wasting their time writing an ebook? Think about it people. Only ebooks I've found helpful were written to be completely free.

That's awfully rude...

James Burnham - December 27, 2016, 12:08 pm

There are good writers that don't make false promises. They sell for some months and then they quit because they can't compete with those that promise thousands overnight. The flashy sellers, are almost always trickers.

y-y-youtoo - December 27, 2016, 12:20 pm

Agent Shark - December 27, 2016, 1:27 pm

I will say, roughly three years ago, I went and purchased 6 eBooks. Only one of those methods do I still use today and have expanded on to be successful. Most eBooks here are crap but you have to get very lucky to find that one.
