Nice bro!

I'm probably going to get the EW Wing Zero after I build this one basically Destiny and Impulse's rival haha

setsuna - December 30, 2016, 10:00 pm

Wing Zero is great!

Where do you usually buy yours from? My host family in Japan sends me some here and there, but I usually use Amazon. They are basically impossible to find where I live for some reason :/

Ebay since I don't really use amazon

Also there's a lot of local shops around me which get them imported from Japan so I can wait even less for them to get here ?

setsuna - December 30, 2016, 10:03 pm

Man you're lucky haha! Do you live in US? There's actually a place near my university that has them but they mark them up so much x.x

I'll check ebay out next time, thanks! :)

Yeah dude there's a shop in my state that sells a lot of freaking models so lucky me that they support such a great hobby here locally
