PM'ed you, hopefully we can work something out, I'm highly interested.

funtela - December 27, 2016, 8:58 pm

I tried this with someone else and they couldn't because my account is linked to a network and it takes 30 days to leave it.

Would this be an issue?

Review -

At first I was confused as last time I tried this my social network was blocked. I was extremely happy when Duradel was able to complete this for such a easy price, because for those that actually know about YouTube verification, it's not easy at all.

The process took about 8 hours, he was easy to work with, answered a lot of questions with ease & most importantly patient.

Thanks again OP for completing this service, my partner is now extremely happy aha! Appreciated.

ZuGgY - December 28, 2016, 4:39 pm

We need before and after proof. Next person who purchases, please post your channel before purchasing this service, so we can see the "after" and confirm that this service is actually legit. Thanks.

Or just get OP to post a test account without it being verified, wait a day, then verify it. I have an idea of how he's doing it, but anyways goodluck OP! :) From the recent replies I assume he's legit

SecuroServ - December 29, 2016, 6:27 pm

This is that you have a checkmark next to your name right?
Do you need a minimum amount of subscribers?

Tid?es - December 29, 2016, 6:28 pm

Why are you avoiding posting proof?

I want to see a picture or atleast and account that isn't verified and then kaboom you verified it within 1 day.

It's not only me asking for this proof, but many other people is.

Outcast - December 29, 2016, 10:16 pm

Okay, so personally since I've verified accounts before. I don't know when it ever took "8 hours" for the process, and there's only one way other than having 100k subscribers to request it, and other than that you can't be milking people for money without having proof. $250 is a lot, considering there's no proof what-so-ever I don't know how you have the nerves to continue bumping the post expecting people to purchase from you.

Thanks again OP for completing this service, my partner is now extremely happy aha! Appreciated. First off, price isn't "easy". Secondly, it was really easy than most people would realize. People used to sell this for $25-$60. I'm not sales trashing or anything but this sounds way too fishy. Also welcome to HackForums! ?

Phazzy - December 30, 2016, 10:42 am

I want to order but without proof and at a high price I can't take the leap first. Proof up man!

Roytoy - December 30, 2016, 10:46 am

Might be interested if you could provide some proof.

Also, would probably not be interested if you need my login information, which I'm guessing you do.

Thanks again OP for completing this service, my partner is now extremely happy aha! Appreciated. Do you have proof? This vouch seems so sketchy I hope Omni will do something about fake vouchers. Because people like this reply is just BS. This is one of the most BS and sketchy vouch I've ever read to be honest.

And if this worked out for you I assume you'll be happy and proof it with a picture, but you only wrote so that means you're not happy with it so this is a fake ass vouch to be honest. I hope every member who comes to this thread is reading my post. I'm not sales-thrashing or anything. I'm warning people here.
