Thread: If someone admits to scamming through PM system can they be dealt with by staff?

Wakka - December 28, 2016, 8:30 pm

I know staff won't get involved in deal disputes, this is not what I'm asking for at this point, the deal is off there is nothing more to be disputed with this user. The guy said he would pay me back then he just ignored me so I am past an hope of this being resolved.

The guy who scammed me for my $40 way back @cole, A.K.A Mango Inc see deal dispute for more information basically admitting to exit scamming me through PM.

If someone is admitting to being an exit scammer, they obviously don't belong on the forums and will likely scam again, so my question is will staff do anything about this user given this new information in the form of PM?

Prophett - December 28, 2016, 8:31 pm

Staff don't get involved with deals so no.

VirtualFrost - December 28, 2016, 8:35 pm

Pm's should not be posted publicly here

And no staff won't get involved

Sorry for your loss OP but staff doesn't take responsibility, or even care for helping with disputes. Would be cool to see some of these people with high-rep accounts get banned, for example look at black shadow he scammed over 20 users and still is an active member.

Oh well, then I guess I'll just have to keep licking my wounds.

Ummm he never admitted to being an exit scammer though.

Of course. Admitting to be a scammer on site is enough to get someone closed.

Indeed staff doesn't gets involved in deal disputes, but if you claim you are a scammer; expect a perm ban.

If someone admits it, yes you may expect them to be permanently banned from HF. That will most likely be the decision of a staff.

I'm scared to PM omniscient anything because I usually get rep killed when I do that Spoiler \(Click to View\)(I'm not saying Omniscient is mean, because I know now he is merciful)

... I think I will wait for his response in this thread (Hopefully) and then maybe I will PM him the PM.

They'll check if the forwarded PM is legit and take action. It's onsite proof you have nothing to be scared of.

Fuck it i'll give it a whirl... breathes deeply psst Omni, prove him wrong and rep kill me ;)

Good luck! I would like to see this happen for you. I know how you feel. I got scammed->scammer admitted publicly but then nothing happens. Hopefully justice will be served for your case.

Its all at Omni's discretion.
