Captain Steve Rogers - December 29, 2016, 1:20 am

Me and some friends are deciding to go out, probably a Hill station.

Whats your plan?

Xogg - December 29, 2016, 1:20 am

Sit at home. On hackforums, and visual basic DutchCoder - December 29, 2016, 1:21 am

Firework, Drinking , Blowing with friends :D

Fortunate - December 29, 2016, 1:21 am

My new year is going to be fucking lit. One of my good friends has a party.

A lot of drugs, alcohol, beer pong, poker, cigars, women and fireworks.

Sounds dangerous but IT'S GONNA BE AMAZING ?

InspectorGadget - December 29, 2016, 1:25 am

Drugs, booze, clubs, the usual routine for my 20's!

test - December 29, 2016, 1:25 am

Go clubbing in the city with a shitload of MDMA hopefully.

Black Aura - December 29, 2016, 1:36 am

I'm going to a drum and bass party and i'm fucking hyped.

Can't wait to be honest

big dick rick - December 29, 2016, 1:37 am im going to go to a dnb club while on ecstasy.

Bluffer - December 29, 2016, 1:38 am

I will probably end up drunk as fuck browsing Hackforums and/or at the casino because I don't have a life.

fapninja - December 29, 2016, 1:41 am

I'll be playing games on my PS4.

BR?ND?N - December 29, 2016, 1:56 am

Stay up, watch ball drop, then go to sleep. I live a boring life.

Sh4rk Seny - December 29, 2016, 1:59 am

I'll be drunk and playing some cards with friends not much.

woms - December 29, 2016, 2:01 am

I will be going out with friends and probably getting drunk even though I dislike alcohol I'd much rather get high as shit .-.

Brendan - December 29, 2016, 2:23 am

If everything goes as it should me and my friends are going to do what we do every year and have some Halo 3/Online sword duels.

You should decide to do something else, you still got 2 days to decide.

timestamp doesn't work with the tag go to 31 seconds...

Mr. Corleone - December 29, 2016, 3:00 am

Hmm. I'll be working for about 8 hours that day. After that my second job for 3 hours. I'll get paid triple the normal amount.

At 0:00 i'll probably be firing some illegal fireworks :)

Artifex - December 29, 2016, 3:25 am

Probably will sit at home. Not really a person who celebrates the new year as if it is something special. Only time I can imagine it may be really fun to celebrate the new year is if you were in Times Square when the ball dropped and could see all the live musical performances throughout the night leading up to and after the new year.

Tenno - December 29, 2016, 3:27 am

Gonna celebrate with my two good friends, probs just gonna drink and chat.

Yin Yang - December 29, 2016, 3:28 am

To get shit faced at my crib. I'm over the whole let's go out and spend mad guap on food, drinks, and a hotel room. Might as well buy it ourselves and save $

Really Cool - December 29, 2016, 4:29 am sit in my room on HF, most likely make some music and contemplate suicide

Man, if doing nothing is getting you down, then get out and do something; anything.

It's the only way to get out of the rut. You may not enjoy it at first, but the more you do stuff, the less depressed you'll be.

Some of us are just a bit thick when it comes to fixing our own problems, myself included.

thedakkle - December 29, 2016, 9:43 am

Stay home with my family. I have all my year to celebrate things with my friends. I always stay with my family on new year

gore - December 29, 2016, 9:44 am

Go hang out with friends around 9-10pm. Get drunk as fuck. Chill.
Work at 11am the next day.
Whooooo.

Jallu - December 29, 2016, 9:49 am
