Regulus - January 11, 2017, 1:27 pm

Here's some information on why I chose my username. It's pretty far-fetched but I love it. :)

1. Regulus = A pretty known star in space which is the brightest star in the constellation Leo and one of the brightest stars in the night sky as well.
2. The star also has the nickname: The star of the lions.
3. Lion = Is my zodiac sign as i'm born in August.
4. The star is blue.

Info about it: Regulus is a multiple star system composed of four stars that are organized into two pairs

That's why I chose it. Read more here: <https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Regulus>

I watched looney tunes a lot as a kid and always loved Taz "Tasmanian Devil". So growing up I always used the online name "Taz" However that name was usually always used by someone. So when the first blackops came out I started writting game mods for it and had to create youtube videos. So I put Taz and Ops together.. And it came out "TazzyOpz". I actually don't prefer my name all that much anymore but I know there are a lot of users that will look me up under that name so I never really wanted to change it.
