Thread: I'm curious about negative reputation

Apocryphon - December 30, 2016, 6:59 am

So few days ago a guy negged me saying "Deal With Caution" even though I have never made any deal with him, nor intended to make a deal, nor there is an open scam report about me. The rules in the reputation say it's okay to leave that kind of rep to warn the community, but never making a deal nor having an open scam report and getting DWC rep is a joke, lmao.

A day later I negged him too and then he edited my rep and wrote

Deal with extreme caution, user tried to send me a suspicious file on Skype after I negged him

I don't even have this guy on skype and he wrote this? It's fuckin stupid how could someone make a fake story? Is it allowed to come with a fake story?

It's not like I care about it but it could affect my trust on here since I do a lot of deals on HF.

Deany - December 30, 2016, 7:00 am

DWC reps are unorthodox if they aren't "valid" but they're allowed just gotta deal with it and no, it won't have any change on your TS

Have you attempted to message the member who neg repped you and try to resolve it?

Domyos - December 30, 2016, 7:03 am you can basically put whatever you want in the neg except when someone accusing someone of scamming without having the dispute link and having it in the dispute database afaiik.

Well I didn't message him. Seeing that he came up with such a fake story about sending him something on skype when I don't even have him on skype I thought that it would be worthless sending him a pm.

He could be confusing you with another member or something along those lines (its happened to me in the past)

I would definitely suggest messaging him and trying to come up with a solution

I doubt about it.. He just readed my PM and didn't even reply on it.

He replied actually and said just OK, which is weird af.

Whatever I guess you are right, thanks for the help.

One negative can't but first can.

Coming to the topic: It's legitimate rep you need to get over it.

I never used negative reputations before nor got one till now. I'm not much into them.

vaiperboy - December 30, 2016, 7:38 am eh i feel u, i got neutral'd by some fag earlier lol, i wouldnt care less about the rep tho

i hope ppl would read my rep to u before reading his :)

cheers

You have used 3 negative reputations before, but none of them were to ub3rs. Look if you'll afraid from neg rep, You won't be able to give honest comments.

Prince™ - December 30, 2016, 7:39 am

That one negative reputation is not going to bother much. Even one ahole decided to give me a negative rep for no reason. I messaged him trying to resolve it, he still said fk off.

It's okay we gotta deal with these people here.

Cammy - December 30, 2016, 7:41 am

I get loads of negs and neutrals its not so bad lol but then again i dont deal here so eh.

One neg won't hurt you especially when u see all the other people sticking up for you after you got it

How can it be valid when I don't even have you in skype nor we made any kind of contact before the -rep.

Trust me a single neg especially a DWC one is nothing important, take a look @ my negs ffs lol.

Its valid unfortunately.

Mr.iOUS Mystic - December 30, 2016, 8:49 am

Lol look at my neg, asshole random person scammer wrote i tryed to scam him with fake ppals lol, i could do nothing to to it, +he got banned

@Jupiter - December 30, 2016, 8:53 am

A user named hammer left a similar rep saying "DWC" and he got rep fucked for it.

So uh idk

Now this is the funniest and the most fucked up reply I've readed on hackforums.
