Thread: A couple of Help Doc and Rule Edits \(Safe Trading, Mycode, Rule\)

Minor change to the text in the Help Docs:

My Suggestion for the Safe Trading Section of the Help Docs would be to include the recent sticky in the currency exchange section on exchanging.

For the scam reports section a few small suggestions:

1) Changing 'The Scam Reports section' to 'Deal Disputes'

2) Mentioning The Deal Dispute Database

edit:

Just a quick addition to this

The images used in this tab for mycode are not https and are dead images because of that

edit2:

Found this minor grammar difference in marketplace rule when making my new guide

Secondary Sellers - Member Sales Market

Code Important Marketplace Rules

1. HF will not be held responsible for deals made by members.
2. Read this guide on safe trading.
3. If you are scammed please use the Deal Dispute forum. Do not send staff a PM. There is little we can do.
4. If reporting a scammer please post as much evidence as you can.
5. If you are a l33t member please leave the scammer feedback even if it's neutral.
6. We do not allow any deals that are associated with paypal, credit card, bank, or identity fraud.

Marketplace Rules - Marketplace

Code Rules for Marketplace (please read)

1. HF will not be held responsible for deals made by members.
2. Read this guide on safe trading.
3. If you are scammed please use the Deal Disputes forum. Do not send staff a PM. There is little we can do.
4. If reporting a scammer please post as much evidence as you can.

5. If you are a l33t/ub3r member please leave the scammer feedback even if it's neutral.
6. We do not allow any deals that are associated with credit card, bank, or identity fraud.

minor suggestions for changes to the secondary sellers section are:

Deal Dispute Forum to Deal Disputes Forum as it is in marketplace rules and adding or removing paypal from the #6 fraud rule in either secondary sellers or marketplace

Your signature is making me cringe though xD

Hahaha

Have to stand out somehow I suppose
