The Brotherhood is Recruitment Only

Recruitment Thread

The Brotherhood is a group of individuals who are bound by loyalty to exercise their skills, knowledge, and time, which will encourage the acts of assisting oneself and others.

Requirements:

We are now allowing members to be accepted to our group, our specific requirements vary based on the member but here are our general guidelines:

Around 60+ posts per month of your account's age

No LQP or Harassment Warnings

No legitimate open or unresolved scam reports

No trolling or flaming other members

Acceptable grammar needed

Skills

We will also check threads, posts, reps, and the opinion of other members on what they think of you before we decide to invite you.

Note: We require our members to be active and participate in group activities if you are invited, be sure to read our handbook and follow all our rules.

Why do you want to join The Brotherhood:As you know i love to help others and contributing the community , i think i can be a good member to this group to bring quality and support to all the community.

I'm active a lot around HF and i have a lot of free time so i can participate on group projects and a lot of group events .

I think i should get the chance to join the group to show you what can i do :)

Why should we invite you to The Brotherhood:I'm a quality member , i'm active and i love to help others , almost no one knows me around here but if you will check the gaming section you can see my activity and how i help people around :)

Why do you want to join The Brotherhood:I would like to join the brotherhood so i can learn new things and teach new things to people. I have not contributed much to HF so doing something that could benefit another would really please me.

Why should we invite you to The Brotherhood:You should invite me to The Brotherhood because I am online 24/7, meaning I am a very active user. I do not flame other members meaning there will be no arguments and stupid "beef" going on. Most of all I am a chill person looking to meet new people. Im easy to get along with :)

Why do you want to join The Brotherhood:I want to join to meet some new members and contribute in the name of the group, depending on what. I know Synergy was ran well when I was in and it was active enough for me to WANT to be apart of it and I hope this group will be the same in that concept. I would like to bring ideas into the group, along with me individually being as active as possible. It would be good to join a group that I can focus on being a part of/contributing with.

Why should we invite you to The Brotherhood:I can fuck around and won't take shit seriously with people in the group. I will be active daily and will contribute individually but hopefully within group events. I pretty much don't start any shit with anybody. I won't be ghosting the group, and I will bring a lot of activity.

Why do you want to join The Brotherhood: Judging by just who the leaders are, I can tell that this group has very high standards and they seem like they have a ton of great plans for the group. I'd like to help strengthen that already powerful backbone. I'd like to contribute the group with tutorials, giveaways, and my presence. The members also seem to be very friendly, I personally know that Views is a very calm and down to earth dude. Cryptic is also very nice. I don't know who illuminati is but I'm sure he's also caring.

Why should we invite you to The Brotherhood:I will contribute to the group immensely. I am very active on HF and I strive to be active in group subforums. As mentioned before, I can contribute with tutorials, giveaways, and my presence. I'd also be into leading some sort of group program if it ever came down to it. I'm also fairly skilled in programming, I made a cool minecraft turbo in visual basic, and I learned that whilst making it, you cannot give up, and you must be persistent. That is how I plan to go about applying for this group. Thanks.

Why Me?

Why do you want to join The Brotherhood: I really enjoyed my time in synergy talking with some of the leadership (Views & Illuminati). I love the brotherhood graphics as well as the name. I also like the group niche and feel it'd be a group which would suit me. I don't join every single group, only ones I think would suit me. I'm extremely active, not a huge lounge whore; I post regarding serious issues when I'm actually being creative. I have discord and Skype and I'm available almost all day everyday.

Why should we invite you to The Brotherhood: I'm very active on both skype & discord and really like the group. Would really enjoy being a part. Thanks for reading my application!

Why do you want to join The Brotherhood:Going to go with quality over quantity here. I will have two goals if I'm accepted:

1. Create

I plan to seek out members of the group who have goals that align with mine and I'll assemble them to create. I need some powerful projects on my resume and I'll be using the Brotherhood as a recruitment ground for participants. I will accomplish this on my own anyway but the door will be open for any members who are serious about participating. Our projects will not be sold. I intend to keep them private for Brotherhood members or simply release them completely publicly.

2. Bestow

In what free time I have left I'll be dedicating to bestowing knowledge for HF members. This will consist of help desks, tutorials, and 1 on 1 sessions. I'd be happy to also recruit Brotherhood members willing to join. These won't be sold either unless the group needs funding and I am told to price it. I will also attempt to revive the Virus Removal section, I'd love some experienced members to join me in that.

Why should we invite you to The Brotherhood:I am a very capable and determined individual with high goals and expectations for the future. I'm not sitting on my ass all day and gets tasks done as soon as they land in front of me. I'm fortunate enough to not worry financially so I don't focus on making an online income. I think that alone speaks a lot. I'm entirely focused on building my life, that's what I have my scope aimed at. I think the Brotherhood could have a positive impact on my future so I'm applying. If the Brotherhood is the group that stands by it's motto of being home to unique individuals I'd fit like a puzzle piece.

Why do you want to join The Brotherhood:From what I can tell, you are all a group of highly respected members, I have been on hackforums since 2011(I cleared everything with omni and have permission to be on the site PM for proof.), and know my way around it. I know how tuff life can be so I like to help however I can. Started a side business recently to fix broken laptops/tablets around my area and it has been going well. Although when it comes to this group I feel a large amount of respect, when I was younger I never really had a chance to apply to the old Brotherhood group so I am grateful to have the opportunity. I am rather active, and

Why should we invite you to The Brotherhood:I am a dedicated member, and really easy to get a long with, it takes a lot to push my buttons. But if accepted I promise to participate in the group activities and provide as much of a service as possible. I respect everyone with the kindness I would expect back in return. And it is a miracle I am even still alive to this day. Thank you so much for the opportunity I look forward to possibly hearing from you.

Why do you want to join The Brotherhood: I have two key reasons on why I want to join The Brotherhood. First, to learn and to share ideas with other members. Second, to meet new members and catch up with others and have that "family" feeling again. Ever since The Empire, groups have not had that "family" feeling, groups seem to come and go nowadays with no real direction. I know The Brotherhood won't be that type of group because of the leadership, I know the members that are leading and have talked with them quite frequently in the past (being in The Empire helped with this) and after reading Cryptic's thread about The Brotherhood coming back I'm excited to see what his fresh mindset will bring to the group and to the forum.

Why should we invite you to The Brotherhood: I believe you should invite me to The Brotherhood because of my friendliness and my mindset dedicated to succeeding. I say friendliness because TBH in the past was exactly what the name was, a brotherhood, without being friendly and wanting to learn about other members and interacting with them you can't have a brotherhood. I say my mindset dedicated to succeeding because whatever The Brotherhood throws at me I believe I can learn and adapt, I'm always wanting to make money anywhere I can and to start my own business of some sort and I'm hoping TBH will be able to give me an opportunity to achieve those wants.

Thank you for the opportunity, best of luck with the group.

Baka (I am currently in this)

Why do you want to join The Brotherhood: I personally have heard lots of good things about The Brotherhood.

I was previously in Synergy, and I admire how Cryptic leads his groups. I expect that the new Brotherhood will be as HQ, as it was before.

I really would like to be apart of this group, and help out as much as I can.

Why should we invite you to The Brotherhood: I try to post HQ posts in group sub forums at least once every day. If I can't do this, and I have a valid excuse I will tell one of the group leaders.

I am pretty trust worthy among many members, and I am pretty diverse.

I can offer group services such as doxing, and free graphic designs.

Although I can't guarantee it I will try to do monthly giveaways, as members like it.

Thanks for reading my application, and I wish good luck to other applicants.

Why do you want to join The Brotherhood:Well reading your Informational Thread that Cryptic created, you guys hosted these "spy events" that would basically expose members that are trying to sell their accounts, or the others that were listed on that thread. They were very interesting, and I could definitely contribute to any group events hosted. Time is also not an issue for me, because I have too much of it. I'm always a helping hand, and I do not hesitate to help anyone.

Why should we invite you to The Brotherhood: Why should you even bother choosing me? Dedication. I'm very dedicated in what I like doing, and just socializing with other people across different parts of the world. I'm 15 years old and that really sets me apart from most people that might be in your group, because you probably don't look high upon a member that is 15 years old. Joining a new group, also means new people, and new people means, new friends. I'm willing to talk to anyone from different backgrounds. I'm also very respectful to other users, when they don't post stupid shit at least.

Why do you want to join The Brotherhood: The reason on why I will like to be apart of The Brotherhood is because I had read on the description to what it is based on and it's apart of helping the Community in ways than one, I in my free time love to give a helping hand when am able to and an example will be of CrypticVPN, on Skype there is a group based conversation where some people may occur issues and I try to help out for the sake of wanting to. Other times it will be over Discord or on here with a user that seems to be troubled in something and I shoot them a personal message to try and see if I can possibly help them with their worries. / If needing needing assistance with anything. Enjoy participating on new projects.

Why should we invite you to The Brotherhood: I am back to being extremely active and intend to stay that way from now and ongoing months. In addition I will like to take a role of being with a group that is based on my personal interest to helping others. Always speak the truth and being in a respectable manner with everyone, being someone who you can relay on. Never experienced any warnings or scam reports. This group is also operated by remarkable personal on who I had the privilege of speaking with each one and getting to know, that being said.. do have a strong urge in it being successful of it being simply a fact :)

Why do you want to join The Brotherhood: The Brotherhood has been a pillar among groups on the forum for the past several years. While other groups have changed time and time again, never finding their footing, The Brotherhood has remained firmly on the ground with its ideals and core motivations. I see a lot of what prompted me to join Hack Forums in The Brotherhood, the fruits of the labors of its members, and the attitude with which The Brotherhood members compose themselves. I was in The Brotherhood in the past, but left the group and Hack Forums in general to more closely pursue my academic interests. I seek to join The Brotherhood so as to connect with a vast network of intelligent and respectful individuals, better myself in a variety of manners, and teach other members about things that I am passionate about. Another great thing about The Brotherhood, and one of my primary reasons for joining, is the breadth and depth of knowledge that members have in their respective fields or areas of study. They aren't just hobbyists or casual individuals; some members treat their field very seriously, and go out of their way to help other people across the forum in a variety of manners.

Why should we invite you to The Brotherhood:I will be an asset to The Brotherhood as both a passionate and experienced web developer, and as a calm & collected individual. Some people can be masters in their fields and know all there is to know about web design, but they might be perceived as hostile, harmful, or toxic. Conversely, some people may not be the most knowledgeable in a field, and may sometimes provide incorrect information in the moment of trying to provide help to someone else, but their intentions are pure and kind-hearted in nature. I have the best of both scenarios: I am well-versed and smart in a wide range of web technologies and programming languages, and I approach people who need help (or who seek to help me) in a polite and calm manner.

Why do you want to join The Brotherhood:I want to get more involved within the HF community and meet new people. My past experience with HackForums groups has been amazing! I've met a bunch of new people and some of my best HF friends. My goal is to stay active on HF; which at the moment is really hard since I find it hard to participate within random threads. I would love to be part of a sub-group to be active within a more closed and more user friendly community.

Why should we invite you to The Brotherhood:As stated above, I'd love to be more active and social with the members of the Brotherhood and be able to provide my services. I am becoming more active as my time in school is almost coming to an end during the winter/summer. I will be able to help out the group in anyway that I can, whether it'd be for something very familiar to me or something that I have never done before. I'd love to learn from the members of the group as well. Overall, I just think I could possibly bring my knowledge to the group and also teach some of the members who are interested in learning what I know.

Why do you want to join The Brotherhood:I was very happy to see that this group was being rebranded, it was a group when I first joined here, and I love to see things get a fresh start. The group has a lot of HQ members and not to mention it has a sick userbar.

Why should we invite you to The Brotherhood:In my eyes I am a HQ member. I've had a couple of warnings only in my near 4 years on HF, no deal disputes, and I am incredibly respectful and feel as I will be a good addition to the group, activity-wise, as well as quality-wise. I would enjoy to get to know the other members that I haven't been acquainted with yet. I'm always down to play games with group members, so hopefully I can get a few new gaming friends too. :)

Why should we invite you to The Brotherhood:When I first came to Hack Forums my intention was to learn as much as I can and share my new found knowledge to help people who need it. Since I've been here, I've learned so much and tried to give back in many ways to show my gratitude and I have not stopped trying to help anyone I come across who needs it and I don't plan on changing that because we have all been there, and I know how good it feels to find someone who genuinely wants to help. The reason why I have chosen this particular course is because I wish to expand my knowledge in multiple areas of business, as I have many interests. My strengths are: marketing, finance, and salesmanship.

Gaming: I have been playing video games for many years. I own an Xbox One console and the games I mainly play are within the Call of Duty franchise. With that said, I have been involved in competitive gaming and it is something I enjoy the most because it involves good communication, which is something I'm very good at.

Writing: The courses I study involve extensive amounts of writing through both written and controlled assessments. I aim to improve my writing everyday and one of the ways I do this is through my personal vocab list. WritersI might be missing a group or two but that is a fairly accurate list.

Why do you want to join The Brotherhood:I want to be a part of The Brotherhood because I need a group to help me regain interest in the site. Most recently I was a part of Illuminati's gaming sector but left after the sub section was bought out. I am looking for a group to dedicate my time to that will help me regain interest in the site out of the marketplace. Over the past year or so I have not paid much attention to user groups and I've fallen out of the "scene" if you want to call it that. I am familiar with the group and it's a familiar name to me. I'd like to join to get to know the members and to get back to being the quality community member that I once was. Hopefully if invited there will be some sort of gaming sector that I could actively participate in. I feel that I'd make a great addition as a gaming member or regular member. I've been a part of the group before as a member and a part of The Brotherhood Spy Squad and know what it takes to be a member.

Why should we invite you to The Brotherhood:Hopefully I do not come off as repetitive but as previously stated I've been a part of the group before. I know what it takes to be a member and I am someone who knows how to follow the rules and exceed the basic requirements. I feel that I could represent the group positively and hopefully contribute some of my knowledge to further the group members and the group's image. I miss the days where the Spy Squad was catching members selling their accounts and would love to be a part of the group once again. To my knowledge I've never left the group on a sour note and feel that I'd fit right back in. Back to the original question of why you should invite me. I am actively looking for a group and this is the first application I've put out. I remember all the good times I've previously had in the group and want to get back to those times. I appreciate your consideration and wish the best of luck to all applicants. Thank you.

Why do you want to join The Brotherhood:Because I was in the original Brotherhood back in the day and it was amongst my favorite groups.

I also still miss one of the good laidback groups, where I can just go in and chill with a couple friends and just chill in the group lounges etc., don't really feel like any of the groups I'm currently in does that for me. Idk, just feel like TBH would be good for me.

Why should we invite you to The Brotherhood:Because you invited me to Synergy 2 weeks before the group was rebranded, why would your opinion of me change in such a short period of time?

Honestly though I'm a likeable guy pls illuminati, I am very active if I want to be. I'm rarely busy except for when I have work (which again is rare, my boss just doesn't like giving me work) and I'd be willing to contribute to the group in whatever way you'd want me to.

Why do you want to join The Brotherhood:

I've always been looking to join an active group and participate in it. I'm here to help people in the fields I'm good at. I'm not a shit talker. I'm loyal, trustworthy and always on point.

Why should we invite you to The Brotherhood:

I'm a very confident person who is always interested in learning more and always aims for the best. I'll never be happy with the second place and will always do my best to help & win. Furthermore I'm looking for HQ users who are willing to help me, when it comes to fields I'm not good at.

It's your decision now.

Why do you want to join The Brotherhood:The quality of the group was amazing. I was in the group before it closed down and the vibe within the group is always above average. The group owned a Teamspeak that I would always be excited to join after I come back from work at night. The atmosphere was great and you would always meet new people who share the same interest as you within the group. It was a great experience for me and I would like to be apart of the group for another round.

Why should we invite you to The Brotherhood:Opportunities. You learn more from people you meet everyday. The group was a great experieince for me and I met a lot of people. Even participating in the activities were fun to do and I never held back from joining. I am very active and will make sure to participate in everything that being hosted from The BrotherHood.

Why do you want to join The Brotherhood:I've been on HF for a long time. I never really got into a group before. I don't count Nightmare because I didn't apply to get into that group, I got randomly invited and randomly kicked after making 500 posts in about 2 days in the SF.

Why should we invite you to The Brotherhood:I'm really active in SF's, you can see that by looking at my posts in the lounge. I'm not HQ at all time in the lounge because I generally fuck around with people I don't know. I'll be pretty cool and HQ in the brotherhood tho. I just need that glowin' userbar.

Previous Groups You've been in:I'm in a few unofficial groups for discord. Such as the marketing one.

Nightmare. Although this doesn't count because they are rebranding and purging.

Why do you want to join The Brotherhood:

I've seen what you guys do on eclipse and I like it. I know groups aren't the same but the help thread was a really good idea and I would of helped if I could. It seemed that you, Ryan, and M ini had a system and everything under control. I want to be able to help people and be able to be in touch and in a community with people who want to help and assist others. And this is just my chance :). I know my e-dick isn't that big now, but I promise I'm going to try to expand it. Being able to join the brotherhood would allow me to meet newer users that I haven't seen before and meet them.

Why should we invite you to The Brotherhood:You should invite me to the brotherhood because I am a loyal person. I am a user who will conform to the rules. I don't have the rep to show nor do I have a place in the market (yet). Without flinching I can promise you that I am not a person who would even think of scamming or hurting other users. And I am dedicated and ready to help or talk to anyone at almost any time of the day. And I'm not afraid to follow your word over the words of others. That is why I should be invited to join the brotherhood.

Why do you want to join The Brotherhood:[0] To Learn. I originally joined HF to learn and improve my skillset, and that hasn't changed. I am not satisfied with where my knowledge is, and The Brotherhood seems like a community of genuinely intelligent people I could learn a lot from, improving my current skillset and proposing new interests and ideas.

[1] To Teach. I spend a lot of my time teaching, discussing, and helping members around this forum, and I love doing it. Teaching for me goes hand in hand with learning, as I find that teaching and solving other's problems is one of the best ways to learn and solve your own, and I have no plans of ever stopping. I feel The Brotherhood would empower me to teach and meet people who truly care about learning and are dedicated about the things I am.

[2] To Make Connections. By this I don't mean assets but rather friends, as truth-be-told I don't have many from around HF, and I feel Brotherhood is loaded with people I would love to form friendships with.

Why should we invite you to The Brotherhood:I'm a dedicated, qualified, active, and contributing member who would make great contributions to and under the group's name to the forum. I have loads of great resources and knowledge I'd love to give to those who want it, and I have an open mind ready to take in the knowledge people want to share. I would love to be a member of The Brotherhood, and you won't regret having me as one.

Why do you want to join The Brotherhood:Would be a great opportunity to join something big and become something that is growing. Can teach many people in the group the skills I hold and also learn other skills, have many people in groups that are my friends. They have told me the basic ropes and I know most things within a group

Why should we invite you to The Brotherhood:I'm honest and trustworthy as well as an all around good guy, funny to say although I don't think i'm narcissist sometimes I may come off as that. I'm a smart witty type of person with a lot of skills and a great mindset

Why do you want to join The Brotherhood:It seems like there is a lot for me to learn in this group, you describe yourselves as knowledgeable people and I like that. I'd like to expand my knowledge along with you.

Why should we invite you to The Brotherhood:I'm experienced in a wide variety of things and I've been through a lot the past 8 years on here, even tho I haven't been that active with posting stuff on HF in the past. I feel like I can share what I know with you guys in the same time as I can learn things myself.

Why do you want to join The Brotherhood:I am recently getting back into HF, and I feel like the Brotherhood would be a perfect opportunity for me to get to know some of the newer members, and be able to participate on the forums again. I feel like starting small in a closed group then slowly moving back to the community would be helpful for me. I've just gotten back to my normal activity last month, and I've been on and off for inactive for the past 1-2 years

Why should we invite you to The Brotherhood:I feel like i would the perfect selection of the Brotherhood, as I have been on this forum for a long time, and I noticed what The Brotherhood represents. I really hope you consider my application, and that I don't have the graphics abilities to make it stand out, but I can be 100% positive. that adding me to the Brotherhood would be a great idea.

Why do you want to join The Brotherhood: Becuase The BrotherHood has been around for so many years, I want to learn and grow. There is also a gaming HQ for The BrotherHood and you are very active within the community. You guys contribute, help out, and have so much knowledge that I would love to learn.

Why should we invite you to The Brotherhood: Because you want someone who is loyal, dedicated, trust worthy, and has motivation to be a member of the Brotherhood and I am that person who is willing to give 110% within this group!

Why do you want to join The Brotherhood: As I have more free time now, I'm looking to get more involved within the HF community. The Brotherhood is the perfect group for me as it revolves around knowledge sharing. I'm a huge advocate of sharing what I know - as well as learning new things!

Why should we invite you to The Brotherhood: If I was given the opportunity to join The Brotherhood, I would share valuable knowledge I have learned over the years from travelling the world and following my passion. I've invested a lot of time and money into mastering programming and digital marketing and would love to share what I've learned with other members.

Why do you want to join The Brotherhood:I'd like to join The Brotherhood as I strongly believe that being in a group enhances many aspects of being on this forum, which is what I've learnt from being a part of previous groups. I enjoy speaking with new people, getting to know others and sharing knowledge as well as learning new things. I like to be active in the sub forum and participating and everything that I can. I love having discussions with like-minded members.

Why should we invite you to The Brotherhood:I think that you should accept me in to The Brotherhood as I believe I'd be a excellent person to have in the group. I enjoy supporting my brothers, as we all should, and treat each other with utmost respect, which is what I'll do. Like I mentioned before, I enjoy talking to new faces, getting to know others, and this is what I'm hoping to accomplish. I'd like to contribute and support my brothers in any way that I can.

Why do you want to join The Brotherhood:I'd like to join The Brotherhood because of the opportunity that I'll have to make new connections.

Why should we invite you to The Brotherhood:I believe that you should invite me to The Brotherhood because of my entrepreneurial mindset and my talents on the computer. For my age I am extremely eager to pursue my computer oriented career, and I have a lot to offer. I'd love to actively participate in this usergroup and mutually benefit from it.
