Hey guys! I am bout to go do some snowboarding with some of my homies! I was just curious if you could mix hot tea with moonshine or vodka? Not like a mixie but I just drank a bunch of hot tea and im bout to get hammed. Just curious if anyone has any experience! I would assume I would be fine but I dont wanna feel like shit on the lifts because I drank too much tea lol. Just wanting to know if it will mix:) Stay stoned thanks homies!:) ? ? ?

I've tried Iced Tea with Vodka which works alright.

Drinking hot alcohol just doesn't feel right to me, but you could probably give it a go.

Like LS RX7 said Whisky and Tea, I hear its better dude, from multiple people, but I don't see why vodka wouldn't hit the spot, although Whisky and Tea does sound a whole lot better imo
