Thread: Get a custom mousepad for ONLY 99 CENTS!

Occupy - December 31, 2016, 12:25 pm

Hey guys,

So I found this on another forum, and just ordered myself one. It's a completely custom mousepad for only 99 CENTS.??

I do not get anything out of this, this is not a "referral" code or anything like that.?

Method:

1. Go to <http://www.artscow.com/> and register
2. Select this mousepad <http://www.artscow.com/photo-gifts/mousepad/large-mousepad-160>
3. Customize it, put in your shipping info and enter this code "Z099MOUSEPADMXTF9" in the box to the right.

Once applied, the total cost (yes shipping included) will only be 99 cents. I ordered a custom mousepad and I'm still waiting for it to arrive, but loads of other people on the forum have bought it and they came!

Only thing is, because of the high amount of orders, there's a huge backlog and they can take upwards of a month to get, but they're dirt cheap so _o_ /

All credit goes to @doge on mc-mcmarket. He's da real MVP! ??

Enjoy ?

How is it $0.99? It doesn't make sense...

Bugs Bunny - December 31, 2016, 12:27 pm

Woah thats looks awesome!

Why no post some photos?

Apocryphon - December 31, 2016, 12:28 pm

This threads belongs in Shopping Deals and there is already a thread about this mouse-pad.

W?lr?? - December 31, 2016, 12:38 pm

I did this a long time ago and got it. I'm almost positive the reason why it takes a month is because they are shipping from China, because otherwise it's almost impossible to constantly get under $0.99.

Who Soup - December 31, 2016, 12:39 pm

I always liked when people posted this to remind me to buy my yearly mousepad.

Thanks OP ?

Riley - December 31, 2016, 1:06 pm

I just placed my order, probably going to be dumbfounded when it gets here in almost two months.

Thrift - December 31, 2016, 1:12 pm

It takes almost 40 days for it to go through, I mean I don't know how great the quality is of the mouse pad but that's way too long for a custom mouse pad.

Gradient - December 31, 2016, 1:15 pm

The mouse pads are of a high quality. I have ordered many of these pads and I've resold them of ebay and made around $40+ profit.

MightyOne - December 31, 2016, 1:30 pm

I tried it a few weeks ago with the same coupon i believe and it wasnt 0.99$

Though! i do ordered a few already during the last few years, this offer is avaiable for quite some time now..

Its already published in the shoppin deals under money sub but thanks anyway :)

This would be neat. But only if Logitech did the same. I own a Corsair mouse and use Logitech's high-end mouse pads for the best smoothest cursor action.

NYCVN - December 31, 2016, 2:54 pm

This has been out for a while now, the thing is very cheap & quality isn't bad.

Issue is, takes a while for it to ship.

Took like 2-3 months for it to arrive to my house (AB, CAN) poufpater - December 31, 2016, 3:57 pm

oh neat, just ordered one with my company's logo and write my name on it in a corner.

I'll leave it on my desk at work and if anyone asks, I'll say : "oh i got ti from the supply closet"

that should confuse people :D

This should be in referral section. Artscow is a known site.

Sorry just found it and decided to share it.

No harm done :)

Larceny - December 31, 2016, 6:20 pm

I have a custom one from them.

Got it for .99c too.

No complaints. Didn't take 40 days for me to get mine. Probably got in here under a month.

For some people it took 8 days. Just depends on where you are and what the queue is like.

BR?ND?N - December 31, 2016, 6:57 pm

I don't have a credit card. Damn shame.

Larceny - December 31, 2016, 7:08 pm

Just bought another one. We'll see how it goes.

If someone wants one and can't afford it, lmk your pp address. I'll buy one for someone.

dismayed - December 31, 2016, 7:25 pm

Had to use Microsoft Edge because of cookie issues. Thanks for the share, not expecting anything great but it is 99 cents, soooo....

Mr Whiskey - December 31, 2016, 7:27 pm

There's thousands of threads about artscow's mousepads. It's a really high quality mousepad, shipping takes just under 2 months.

ST4RL0RD - December 31, 2016, 7:28 pm

I got two of these awhile ago and have to say I love them, very high quality as well.

iamnotactiveanymore - December 31, 2016, 7:29 pm

K???er - December 31, 2016, 7:33 pm

Just bought one, we will see how it goes. Anyways, thanks OP!

ST4RL0RD - December 31, 2016, 7:41 pm

Bought another now as well. Just a note if you live outside of the USA it does take awhile to come, I almost had forgotten about mine by the time my first ones arrived.

Occupy - January 1, 2017, 5:45 am

G Swervo - January 1, 2017, 5:49 am

I have one of these mousepads, it took like maybe a week or two? to get to me, but I love it. Got both of my dogs on the mousepad and its pretty good quality.

Mirai - January 1, 2017, 5:51 am

This is already in the shopping deal section of this forum.
