Are you looking for a banner with animation?

Big Man ? - January 1, 2017, 12:28 pm

Some of those banners here - <https://hackforums.net/misc.php?action=help&hid=33> - are absolutely terrible. I'm so shocked they're even allowed on that page lol.

Lets hope you get some better ones than the current disgraces lol

This is not official for Hack Forums. I just think that it will be interesting to see what people are able to make compared to the current ones. Thanks and cheers.

I'll post mine soon but I want to put some time in it and it's pretty late here now. I don't think I'm going to go for animated though, that's not my strong point. ?

Cheers, there is absolutely no rush. When I set an ending date, it won't end for at least a week. Good luck.

Closing this a few days earlier. Only two entered, will split the price $20 and reward both with $10 for making solid submissions. I will be busy on another project together with two other users that needs it's attention rather than this thread.

A will PM be sent to the two users who made a submission. (Within 24 hours.)

Keep an eye Graphic Battles, big things will happen there.
