Thread: Cheapest Place for windows 10?

Mitch - January 1, 2017, 6:37 pm

Friend just built his PC. Needs a place to get windows10 for cheap. I bought my win10 key off of G2A, but it's out of stock as of right now. Any suggestions?

Some guy has access to thousands of MSDN accs on l34kf0rums, he sells keys for around $5 - $10 depending on the version (Home Premium, Pro, Enterprise e.g.)

PirateBay? You mean that site where no torrents have viruses?

karl04 - January 13, 2017, 4:51 pm

You can download win10 offical website, like microsoft one :)

CASTIEL - January 13, 2017, 4:55 pm

You can download it for free.

Just use something to crack it. That's what most people do.

From his rep(Ebay seller) looks legit.

Stoels - January 13, 2017, 10:34 pm

I basically got it for free because I started with a pirated copy of Windows 7 and then took the free upgrade to a legit copy of Windows 10.

I can get you it for free, just pm me your contact info.

I have never bought windows 10. The trial is free and is 100% usable you just have a transparent "Activate Windows" Text in the bottom right.

Yeah and that transparent text goes through all of the windows you have open, fuck that.

I'd stick to either buying a cheap license for a few bucks, or just activating it with KMSpico, that's what I did atleast.
