Maybe a gas station?

You didn't really tell us your preference so it's hard to answer

Get work in a bar if you can mate. Good money for the level of work you put in. A lot of places will only hire for the weekends anyway.

I can vouch for this, purchased the top 3 eBooks in eBook Bazaar and currently earning 100k daily! It's crazy!

In all seriousness though, just look through jobs online, doesn't have to be anything fancy or too serious, extra money is extra money.

why not invest some time into cpa ? that way you could be flexible , at home and learn new stuff

Mom - January 3, 2017, 11:16 am

You could try out freelancer and see how you like that, I haven't done it but I've seen people actually earn something on that site.
