Thread: Where are all the SRPP groups at?

Motiv - January 2, 2017, 12:05 pm

I've never seen a group that had an active SRPP section since I was in L'Appel Du Vide and some old Archive members. Any chance someone can revamp one lol.

J?son - January 2, 2017, 12:08 pm

Does anyone know what happened to Apex? That group didn't even last a year

Illuminati has a sector which is called the Occult that's all about SRPP.

The group went up for sale a while back. eCoLoGy ended up buying it and he turned it into Baka.

Not gonna apply again, damn shame

Interesting. Bane is not the guy to just kick someone without saying anything, was there an activity check perhaps?

It was a part of a new plan for the group, so I guess the reasons were valid

Still wish I wouldve been told about it when I was first accepted lol

Yes there was and he failed to post, this user has been complaining on Bane's thread. Why would you complain about being kicked and not re apply? We are going through a huge rebrand

I posted on the most recent activity check I saw, I thought that was good enough

I understand the rebrand, but by not telling us in the PM in which he accepted us was a mistake in my opinion

I have nothing against Bane, like I said in his thread if you would care to read it

And I may re-apply at a later date but as of now I have no plan on doing so

But yeah I'm with ya, it's shitty. If I ever get approved for leader I'll definitely buy one and make it a high quality srpp group.

No one said the illuminati is a SRPP group. The illuminati has a SECTOR that's all about SRPP and it's called Occult. Huge difference in what I said.

Illuminati doesn't have an srpp sector, there we go

My sector blows SRPP out of the water, don't judge what you can't even see.

Last time I got into an argument with an illuminati member about secret government technology he couldn't even properly differentiate between acoustic and electromagnetic waves, yet had plenty to say on the matter of course.

And who are you to sit here and tell me that that isn't SRPP? Just because a member wasn't all that aware of what he was talking about, and I am going to assume is no longer even around. That gives you the right to discredit the whole sector and say we aren't an SRPP sector? You really seem like a smart guy but I am so sick of older members discriminating and hating ALL the time. I am sorry I can't recreate Logic or Void, but it's not 2010/2011 anymore. And you don't have to act how you are.

If you guys want to spend your free time, with a sector you lead, focusing on conspiracy theories and societies and secret technologies and whatever then go for it. I'm just saying that's very different from SRPP, and much of what you guys focus on isn't even remotely close to that of scientific or philosophic academia. Most of the users that join haven't even stepped a foot in that section until after they join - and most still don't. It's not an interest group on philosophical, logical, scientific, or even political from what I've seen, doctrines. It's a group about radical conspiracies and societies and whatever the fuck else.

So if a philosophy or political theory is radical then it's no longer philosophy/political theory? IMO it definitely is, and how can you tell what is radical and where exactly is the line? Some of the theories might actually be true, and what then Jeez, shut up man.

Whats done in a private sub forum is not for you to talk about unless you are actually a part of it.

How stupid is this argument really?

Think about it, your talking down because a few members found a private sub forum to discuss stuff of their own interest.

Shut the fuck up, seriously.

Stupidity. Who cares about your opinion anyways?

Maybe if you didn't recover accounts you gave away in good faith to someone you'd be in more groups :)

I was in the occult sector recently, pretty nice it just lacks a little bit of activity. I am sure Bane is all over it and making plans for the sector!

Trappy - January 2, 2017, 10:38 pm

The Occult looks pretty cool I don't think they let me in though ?

"I'm not hating. If you guys want to spend your free time, with a sector you lead, focusing on conspiracy theories and societies and secret technologies and whatever then go for it"

Not saying do X or Y, cool they like researching conspiracy theories or secret technologies or fucking whatever. I'll let you see if you can find the point I was trying to make, hopefully I won't have to reiterate myself again, the post was only a few sentences long but after you're first post I'm a little bit concerned.

But, hey, thanks for the completely arbitrary and off-topic assertions!
